Introduction

Imam Hussain AS, an ideal for all who believe in righteous causes, a gem of the purest rays, a shining light, was martyred in Karbala on the tenth day of Moharram in 61 A.H. The earliest examples of lamentations for the Imam have been from the family of the Holy Prophet SAW. These elegies are traced back to the ladies of the Prophet's household. Poems composed were recited in majalis, the gatherings to remember the events of Karbala.

The Holy Prophet SAW, himself, is recorded as foretelling the martyrdom of his grandson Hussain AS at the time of his birth. In that first majlis, Imam Ali AS and Bibi Fatima AS, the parents of Imam Hussain AS, heard from the Holy Prophet about the martyrdom and wept. Imam Hasan AS, his brother, as he suffered from the effects of poison administered to him, spoke of the greater pain and agony that Imam Hussain would suffer in Karbala. All the Imams from Imam Zainulabideen (A.S.), our fourth Imam, to the twelfth and last living Imam Mehdi (A.S.) have joined the lamenting for Sayyed us Shohada, the king of martyrs, Imam Hussain (A.S.).

Shias all over the world hold majalis to commemorate the shahadat of Imam Hussain.

Bibi Zainab AS, his sister, laid the foundation of azadari in Damascus. The Ahlebaith were dressed in black and ladies of Quraish and Bani Hashim, who came to offer condolences, joined them. Imam Zainulabideen (A.S.), our fourth Imam and Bibi Zainab AS recounted the tragic account of the day of Ashoor. The audience burst into tears. The ladies on returning home related the events they had heard to the male members of their families. The message spread.

During the months of Moharram and Safar, we remember the sacrifice of Imam Hussain to save Islam. A majlis not only commemorates the shahadat of Imam Hussain AS, but it also keeps Islam alive. Tauheed (Oneness of God), Adl (Justice), Nabuwat (Prophethood), Imamat (Viceregency), Qiyamat (Day of Resurrection) are all touched upon, through the teachings of the Holy Quran and the Ahlebaith. Faith (eemaan) is invigorated.

A large body of literature on Islam exists in Urdu with salaams, marsiyas and nohas. These poems convey many of the events of Karbala and the theme of suffering and martyrdom occupies a central role in the genre. It is a pity that there is a dearth of such literature in English, yet English is the only language that most of the younger generation living in the West understand. The present book gives the transliteration of some of these poems, which can be recited during Moharram and Safar.

The marsiyas describing the tragedy of Karbala begin with the journey of Imam Hussain and his relatives from Medina to Mecca. After the martyrdom of Imam Hussain and his family and companions in Karbala, it follows the caravan of the surviving widows and orphans and the sole surviving son of Imam Hussain. The next phase shows our fourth Imam Zainulabideen (A.S.), manacled and chained, paraded through the streets and courts of Kufa and Damascus. The last phase is the return of this torn and tattered caravan from Damascus to Karbala, now turned into a graveyard, at Arbayeen, and the return to Madina. The marsiya, in its original form, has over a 100 stanzas of six lines each, but in this book only 10-12 have been chosen to describe the climax and catastrophe, where it spells out the shahadat of the martyr in a crescendo of grief and sorrow.

The salaams are used as introductions to the majlis and are followed by the marsias. The nohas are shorter poems and are recited, usually accompanied with matam. In each section, a short hadees has been included to describe the shahadat (martyrdom) of the individual or event that the marsia portrays.

. This volume, “Aza e Zainab” describes the journeys from Karbala to Kufa, from Kufa to Shaam and the events in Damascus leading to the shahadat of Imam Hussain’s four-year-old daughter, Bibi Sakina AS. It narrates the release of the prisoners and the return to Madina, via Karbala for Arbayeen. The shahadat of Hazrat Zainab AS and Umme Kulsoom AS, the sisters of Imam Hussain, are portrayed and the volume ends with a marsia bidding farewell to the days of ritual mourning during the first two months of the Islamic year, acknowledging our inability to do justice to the concept of azadari.

In this revised edition a map showing the route of the journey taken by the Fourth Imam and the Ahlebait in captivity has been included, together with notes on the places that the caravan passed through. Another change has been to use the translation of the ayat at the beginning of the hadees from the more readable and modern style of Maulana Ali Quli Qarai’s paraphrase of the Holy Quran so that readers find it easier to understand the gist of the message.

Aza e Zainab includes the recommended ziarat with translation for the day of Arbayeen, the 40th day after Ashoor. the ziarat of Bibi Zainab and Bibi Sakina have also been included. An index of first lines of salaams, nohas and marsiyas has been compiled.

I would like to thank my husband, Syed Hassan Askari, and my family for their co-operation and assistance, particularly my daughter Rabaab, who has once again wordprocessed the document. I dedicate this effort to my sisters in law, Syeda Abbas Jafri, Bashir Zafar Jafri, Ashraf Hussain Jafri, Sakina Mohsin Jafri, Fatima Qambar Jafri Bilquis Taqui, Raazia Naqui, Bilquis Mehdi and all the children in our families, who I hope will continue the azadari of the holy Ahlebaith and pass it on to future generations, Inshallah. May Allah give us the opportunity to mourn for the Imam, acknowledging the message and following the Right Path He has shown.

Please recite sura-e-Fateha for all the Momineen and Azadaar of Imam Hussain (A.S) particularly the following:

Shabeer ka sar hai naizay par,
Quraan ki tilawat hoti hai
Eilaane haqeeqat karte hain tableeghe Risalat hoti hai

Vo Haq ki himayat karta hai, sar kat tha hai jis ka sajde mein Shabeer ko nokay naiza par meraaje ibadat hoti hai

Ay rehbaar deen tu ne ba quda, dikhla diya Haq ki manzil ko
Har manzile Koofa shahid hai, vo shaane qiyadat hoti hai

Shabeer kay chehra ka kuchh rang, darbare Yazeedi mein badla
Hai robay jalalat se ye ayaan haan dekho qiyamat hoti hai

Jo farqay shahay deen dekhta hai padhta hai Kalema eemaan ka Zalim ke bharay darbar mein bhi, kya shaaney Imamat hoti hai

Ahmed ki nawasi ka qutba, darbar pe saarey chha ke raha
Jis dil main mohabat Haq ki ho, aisi hi qitabat hoti hai

Gardan mein pada hai tauqe giraan,

Jab lut ke Karbala se aseeray sitam chalay
Sajjad sar barahna ba dard o alam chalay
Rotay saro ko peet they pabande gham chalay
Zainab ne laashe Sheh se kaha bhai ham chalay
Marne se aap ke main ye eeza uthhati hoon
Darbar mein Yazid ke sar nangay jaati hoon

Hey hai mere musafire Karbobala Hussain
Hey hai mere ghareeb mere mehlaqa Hussain
Hey hai tujhhe na pani ka qatra mila Hussain
Hey hai tamam tan tera tukde hua Hussain
Pyasay galay pe qanjare bedaad chal gaya
Hey hai tadap tadap ke tera dam nikal gaya

Ay Nainawa Ali ki bizaa ath tujhe mili
Ay Karbala Quda ki amanat tujhe mili
Ay qaak meri Maa ki riyazat tujhe mili
Le ay zameen shamay Imamat tujhe mili
Daaman tera bhara meri kheti ujad gayi

Sarhad mein teri bhai se Zainab bichhad gayi

Ye keh ke sar ko peet ke royi vo dil jali
Aakar Najaf se haal mera dekho ya Ali
Gardan rasan mein aap ki beti ki hai bandhi
Kehti ye maariya se vo ba chashme tar chali
Hey hai main Karbala e moalla mein lut gayi
Pardes mein main aake biradar se chhut gayi

Kya lutf zindagi ka jo naqsha bigad gaya
Kyon kar na tadpoon aah bada pech pad gaya
Is qafilay ka qabila wala bichad gaya
Hey hai hamara kaisa bhara ghar ujad gaya
Pardesiyon ne chhauni jangal mein chhayi hai
Bhai ne mere ek nayi basti basaai hai

Bismillahir Rahmanir Rahiim.

Wa la tah sabannallazeena qatilu fi sabeelillahi
anvaatan bal ahyaaun
inda rabbihim yurzaqoon.

In the name of Allah, the all-Beneficent, the all-Merciful.

Do not suppose those who are slain in the way of Allah to be dead;

Rather they are living and provided for near their Lord.

(Sura Ale Imran 3:168).

This Quranic verse establishes beyond all doubt the immortality of those who lay down their lives in the way of God, their being alive and getting their sustenance from their Lord. To be killed in the way of Allah 'qatilu fi sabeelillah' is Jihad, one of the Furu-e-deen and one who does Jihad is a martyr. The concept of martyrdom is linked with the entire religion of Islam.

Jihad is the believer's fight for the cause of Allah (Nisa 4:56). Effort to acquire the pleasure of Allah 'fi Sabeelillah' is Jihad, where one is prepared to sacrifice not only his own life, but also the lives of his most dear ones. Jihad in the path of Allah has been ordered in the Quran, hadees and our religious teachings. It is as Maula Ali points out in Nahjul Balagha in Khutba 32, a war in defence of religion and humanity- one of the gateways of Heaven, which Allah has kept open for his privileged friends.

Imam Hussain (A.S.) showed us where this path of Allah is. It is the path of human freedom, the path of truth and justice. It is in opposition to all forms of tyranny and injustice and against deviation from the foundations of Islam laid down by the Prophet and the Imams. Allah is Omnipresent and Omniscient and His proximity (qurbat) is achieved, when we act to please Him according to His commands.

The verses of the Ayatul Kursi (2:257) show that guardianship is either from Noor, (light) or Zulmat (taghoot, of the devil). The Prophet and Imams are the wali (guardians) implementing the divine will, hence the aulia of Allah. The Satanic forces, the auliya of taghoot lead towards the darkness of worldly desires, of ignorance and sensuality. The believers fight for the sake of Allah, whereas the unbelievers fight for the sake of taghoot, transgressing the limits set by Allah. The path of Noor in Karbala was exemplified in Imam Hussain and the Yezidi forces were the taghoot.

Imam Hussain (A.S.) laid down his life, with his companions and family, rather than swear allegiance to a usurper of the rights of the people. His rising represented a guarantee against desecration of the sanctity of Islam. This example has kept alive the faith in God and in the humane principles of Islam, preached by the Holy Prophet. Yazid and his agents had become subservient to Satan and ceased to obey Allah. They were committing heinous acts openly and had suspended the penal laws. Wealth was openly misappropriated to benefit persons in authority. They had made lawful the things, which Allah had made unlawful and had made unlawful the things, which Allah had made lawful.

Now Yazeed had the audacity to ask that the grandson of the Holy Prophet, the Imam of the age, give 'bayat' swear allegiance, i.e. become subservient to these Satanic forces. People had become incapable of distinguishing between right and wrong, of recognising friend from foe and suffered humiliation at the hands of the Ummayyad tyrants. The rising of Imam Hussain (A.S.) in Karbala suffering immense personal grief and hardship was to awaken the conscience of the people. The holy Imam courted death for the sake of the Truth and surrendered everything he had to uphold the message of Islam.

On the day of Ashoor, (10th Moharram 61 A.H.) Imam Hussain was cruelly martyred, hungry and thirsty, on the burning sands in Karbala. Not a single man except his ailing son, Ali Zainulabideen (A.S.) was left in the camp. Then the women and children were plundered, their tents set on fires, their personal belongings looted. The bodies of the martyrs were trampled upon and their heads severed and carried away as prizes to be exchanged for rewards from Ibne Ziad, Yezid's governor in Koofa.

But what the Yezidi forces failed to do was to shake the faith of the family of the Prophet, even under these extreme hardships. Bibi Zainab (A.S.) in the ruin and confusion of Shaame Gharibaan, after consoling the orphaned children, still said her prayers after midnight. Allaho Akbar! Imam Zainulabideen(A.S.) bowed down his head and spent the night in sajda. Both these outstanding personalities were to complete the mission of Imam Hussain, facing every hardship with great determination and fortitude.

The morning of the eleventh of Moharram dawned and now was the time that would show why our Imam had brought the ladies of the Ahlulbaith to Karbala. These brave ladies would uphold his message and dispel the doubts and misunderstandings sown into the public mind by the regime. They would make known to the people the objectives and ideals that lay behind Imam Hussain's martyrdom. Through their role, the true values and teachings of Islam would become apparent.

Umar Saad left Karbala on the eleventh of Moharram after having performed the funeral ceremonies and burial of the hellward bound dead of his army. The headless bodies of Imam Hussain (A.S.) and his companions, alas, lay unattended and neglected in the desert for three days.

After the Yezidi army left, the tribe of Bani Asad arrived in Karbala and buried the Imam's body after performing the funeral prayers. Sheik Mufeed writes 'They buried the Imam with his son Ali at his foot and the rest of the martyrs together' in a mass grave. Hazrat Abbas was buried at the place where he was killed, where his tomb still is."

Imam Zainulabideen our fourth Imam, Bibi Zainab and Bibi Kulsoom with the rest of the widows and orphaned children were taken as captives to Koofa. They were strapped on the bare backs of camels and witnessed how their loved ones were left uninterred, scattered all over the camp, drenched in their holy blood.

Yazid and his brutal forces reckoned they had killed Hussain and would annihilate him and his companions. But Imam Hussain and all those with him had died in the way of Allah 'fi Sabeelillah,' and God confirms in the Quran that they are alive, 'ahyaaun'. The Prince of martyrs Syed us Shohada was heard reciting 'Allaho

Akbar’ even as his severed head was raised on the lance in Karbala.

Many miraculous incidents were witnessed as the martyrs were taken from city to city. The tragedy of Karbala sent such a thrill of horror and revulsion against the regime that it ultimately led to the salvation of the faith and arrested the cancer of depravity, which emanated from the court of Damascus.

Umr Ibn Saad had entrusted the severed heads of the martyrs of Karbala to the tribal chiefs so that people could identify these leaders and not be able to interrupt the procession. They headed towards Koofa, the capital city of Iraq. Khooli carried the head of Imam Hussain on a lance to Koofa and was so eager to get the reward from Ibne Ziad that he arrived before dawn. The doors of the city were still locked so he took the Imam’s head to hide it. He told his wife he had brought her the rarity of the world. The woman was enraged and cried, “Other men make presents of gold and silver. You have brought me the head of the son of the Prophet’s daughter!” She was not able to sleep at all that night. She saw a light streaming upwards towards the sky from the place where Imam Hussain’s head lay and white birds continually hovering about it.

Ya Hussain! Ya Hussain!

Hadees

Bismillahir Rahmanir Rahiim.

Wa iz qalatil malaikata

ya Maryamo innallahastafaki wa tahhirki wastafaaki alaa nisa il alameen.

In the name of Allah, the all-Beneficent, the all-Merciful.

And when the angels said

“O Mary, Allah had chosen you and purified you and He has chosen you above the world’s women.”

(Sura Ale Imran 3:41).

This Quranic ayat in the Sura Ale Imran points to Bibi Maryam’s taharat (tahhirki) and her lofty position as being chosen ‘astafaki’ by Allah to be the leading lady of all the women in her age. The next ayat asks her to pray to her Lord, performing sajda and rukoo “Wasjudi wa rakayi ma ar raakieeen”.

Bibi Maryam was the daughter of Hanna, wife of Imran, who had made a nazar that she would dedicate her offspring to the service of Allah. She had hoped for a son but when Bibi Maryam was born, even though it was a girl, she was given in the service of Allah. Her very name ‘Maryam,’ means the maidservant of Allah. Her mother prayed that Allah kept her and her offspring safe from the Shaitain “uzeehabuka wa zurriyataha minash Shaitani rajeem”.

Lots were cast to decide who would look after her, to find a kafeel for Bibi Maryam “yakfulu Maryam” and the duty fell upon Hazrat Zakariya, a Prophet himself and the father of a Prophet, Hazrat Yahya (John). Hazrat Zakariya would often be surprised when he entered the mehraab to find that in her solitary reclusion there would be fruits, out of season, with Bibi Maryam. When he enquired where the ‘rizq’ came from, the holy lady replied “hwa min indillah innallahu yarzuqu mayya shau bi ghairin hisaab.” (It is from Allah; verily Allah provideth whomsoever he likes without measure 3:36).

She grew up with the ‘hasanat’ of the Almighty and was blessed with good tidings. The angel said to her “Ya Maryamo innallaha yu bashshi ruka bi kalimatihi minhi. O Mary, Verily Allah gives you the good tidings of a Word from Him.” This word of God was to be named Masee Eesa ibn Maryam who would be illustrious wajeehan, both in this world ‘fidunya’ ‘wal aaqira’ and the hereafter and be among those who are near to God ‘minal muqarrabeen’. A miracle that would be given to this child was that he would be able to speak to people from his cradle older, ‘wa yukallimun naas e fil mahdi wa kahlan’ and when older he would be of the righteous ones ‘minas saliheen’.

Bibi Maryam was surprised and asked how she could have a child when no man had ever touched her? Wa lam yamsasni basharun! The divine reply came 'Kun fa ya Kun' for He can create whatsoever he wills. When He only says Be, it is.

Allah would teach him (Jesus) the Book and wisdom (Kitaba wa hikmata) and the Torah and Injeel, Wa Toraata wal Injeel. He would be an apostle to the children of Israel, 'Wa Rasoolan ila bani Israil' coming as a sign from his Lord ayyaatin min rabbikum. There are mentioned the miracles that would be given to Eesa – healing the blind and the leper, wa ubriul akmaha wa abrasa and raising the dead to life by God's permission, ahyil mauta bi iznillah.

The Holy Quran acknowledges that some treated Bibi Maryam with derision and blamed her 'bohatnan azeem' but describes her as a truthful lady ummahu siddiqatan. Bibi Maryam was so hurt by the false accusations that she wished she had died and be one of the forgotten. But Allah's message to her was 'la tahzan' do not grieve. It is an Amran maqsiyan (a matter decreed). When she went away by herself to have the baby, she found fresh fruit 'rutba janniya' and a stream for her sustenance. She was told not to speak to anyone.

When she brought the baby, some criticised her. They reminded her saying her father was neither a bad man nor was her mother. When Bibi Maryam pointed to the baby in the cradle they asked how we could speak to a baby in a cradle. Kaifa nukallamu man kaava fil mahdi sabiyaan? The baby then spoke clearly 'Qala inni Abdullah, Verily I am a servant of God. Aatinul kitaba wa ja alni nabi. He hath given me a Book and made me a Prophet.' The baby declared that Allah had made him blessed and enjoined prayer (salat) and charity (zakat) as long as he lived.

Allah had chosen Bibi Maryam to be the manifestation of His Omnipotent Will, the maker of Laws of nature. He can act as He wills for He is the creator of the Laws of Nature and is not Himself bound by them. When ever He wills he can cause anything to take effect.

Bibi Maryam and her son Eesa are described elsewhere in the Quran as a sign of Allah 'aayatun' who were given refuge in a land, quiet, secure and watered with springs (23:50). She is described as one of the obedient ones, possessing qualities liked by the Almighty, sadaqat bi kalimati rabbiha wa kutbihi wa kaanat minal qaaniteen' (46:12).

Truthful and obedient, Siddiqua, Fatima Zehra, the daughter of the Holy Prophet Mohamad is Faqre Maryam. She was the Syedatunisa-il aleemeen – the best lady among all the women of the world from the beginning to the end of creation.

While in Medina Bibi Fatima was once invited to attend a wedding by a Jewish family who extended the invitation to ridicule the poverty of the Prophet's household. But when Bibi Fatima arrived at the wedding, such radiance flowed from her that everyone among the guests fainted. Others recovered, but the bride showed no signs of life. With profound apology the hostess approached Bibi Fatima and asked her to pray that the bride be restored to life. Bibi Fatima offered two-rakat namaz and prayed. The girl sat up and identified Bibi Fatima, as the lady on whose authority she had been given a new lease of life. All who witnessed this became Muslims. Salawat Bibi Fatima was presented a slave girl, who was given the appellation, Umme Habiba.

The Ahlebaith freed so many from slavery and Umme Habeeba, too, was given her freedom. She settled in Koofa, but away from Medina, she always longed for a sight of the Ahlebaith. On 12th Moharram 61 A.H. Umme Habeeba saw there was a great rejoicing in the city of Koofa. People dressed in festive clothes and joyful celebrations were held. The market place and lanes were full of people, who were told that Muslims had secured a victory against a rebel.

Women around Umme Habeeba persuaded her to come and witness the procession.

What Umme Habeeba saw moved her to tears. She saw heads on lances and behind them were ladies bearing such grief, that it could not be described. A four-year-old little girl seemed parched with thirst. The caravan stopped just in front of Umme Habeeba's house. Umme Habeeba looked at the little girl and offered her water.

"When you drink it, do two duas for me for I have heard that Allah accepts duas from griefstricken and young children."

She said, "What is your request?"

Umme Habeeba replied,

My husband is away. Please pray that my children are not orphaned like you. Secondly, I wish that I get the ziarat of my Maula Hussain and my Bibi Zainab."

Bibi Sakina prayed. Bibi Zainab turned to her and asked, "Would you recognise Bibi Zainab if you saw her?" Umme Habeeba was shocked at the question and realised that she was talking to Bibi Zainab herself.

Alas, Imam Hussain and all his family had been brutally massacred in Karbala. The ladies had been bereft of their head veils and the children denied food and water. There was loud wailing when people realised that it was the family of the Prophet who had been killed in Karbala.

“Now you weep for my brother and raise wailing cries for him...Yes by the Almighty weep...You have martyred a man, who was your succour, your support in adversity, the tower of your strength, your guide in precept and practice. Realize that you are guilty of an extremely obnoxious crime and heinous misdeed in this world.... Woe to you O people of Koofa, Do you know where you have hurt Mohamad most, what vows you have broken and whose blood you have shed... Remember! Yes remember that your retribution should be extremely harsh and severe and there will be no one to come to your rescue.”

Bibi Zainab’s words fell like angry thunderbolts and her speech delivered with eloquence and courage had a deep effect. Imam Zainulabideen then asked the people of Koofa

“Aren’t you ashamed of your selves, you invited the son of the Prophet and is this how you welcome your guests?”

Bismillahir Rahmanir Rahiim.

Kuntum qaira ummatin

uqrijat lin naasi

tamuroona bil maroof wa tanhauna anil munkari

wa tumeenuna billah.

In the name of Allah, the all-Beneficient, the all-Merciful.

You are the best group

(ever) brought forth for mankind.

You bid what is right

And forbid what is wrong evil

And have faith in Allah

(Sura Ale Imran 3:109).

You are the best people ‘qaira ummatin’ brought forth for mankind ‘lin naasi’. These people are the ones who enjoin what is right (amarta bil maroof) and forbid what is wrong (nahiya anil munkar). The verse applies to those men of Allah who were endowed with the excellence of the divine qualities of every kind of goodness, which the Holy Prophet possessed. This distinguished group were free from every kind of impurity, external as well as internal. They were the Truthful ones and possessed the two essential qualifications referred to in the above verse. The ‘khaire ummat’ are those who would always invite mankind to what is fair and prevent and preach abstinence from what is unfair i.e. evil.

They are the Holy Ahlebaith, purified by Allah himself the people of Ayat e Tatheer. Imam Hussain (A.S.) before leaving Medina had made it plain that his mission was to reform the Muslim community by ‘Amr bin maroof’ and ‘Nahya anil munkir’. He wrote in a letter to the people of Kufa:

‘An Imam is one who judges by the Holy Quran, upholds justice, professes the religion of truth and dedicates himself to obeying Allah and His Prophet.’ He was aware of his responsibility as the Imam and saw that truth was not followed, nor was falsehood condemned. Under such circumstances death was preferable in order to establish a just social order. ‘Indeed, I do not see death except in the form of martyrdom and I do not see life with the unjust as anything but loathsome.’

On the day of Ashoor, Imam Hussain was brutally massacred with all his family. His severed head was taken on a lance to Koofa. His sisters, widows, children and other members of his family were paraded through the streets of Koofa and brought before Ibne Ziad, Yazid’s governor.

It was indeed a tragic sight that the family, who once ruled Kufa, now stood as prisoners. Through the march in the streets, Bibi Zainab had delivered a fiery sermon, condemning the people of Koofa for killing the Imam, for breaking their pledges and shedding the blood of the son of the last Prophet of Allah. He was the chief of the youth of Paradise 'Sayyed shahab ahlil janna', their support, and their refuge in hardship. She reminded them that chastisement of the next world would be severe and that Allah is watching their actions. There was a stunned silence. Umme Kulsoom, sister of Bibi Zainab, also severely condemned and reproached the Koofians, who started to weep.

As they approached the court of Ibne Ziad, they saw the governor seated on a throne and the head of Imam Hussain placed on a salver at his feet. Ala laanatullahi qaumi zalimeen. Obediullah ibne Ziad taunted the Ahlebaith saying, "I thank Allah that He has disgraced you and killed you and made people aware of your lies." Bibi Zainab replied, "The evil doers abase themselves and the corrupt tell falsehoods and we are not such." Ibne Ziad then said, "Binte Ali, Daughter of Ali, have you seen how Allah has acted with your brother and his family?"

The courage and unshakable faith of Bibi Zainab is apparent from her bold reply in front of this tyrant, who had killed all her family members in Karbala. She said: "I have not known anything but benevolence and goodness from God. And as for our people, for whom God has ordained blessings of martyrdom, they defended themselves with valour. They were martyred and hence, reached their divinely ordained Abadi.” She reminded him that he was awaiting retribution for his atrocious deeds and was guilty of a most ghastly crime. “You are drunk with this short lined night and brief prestige, proud of worldly power.” “Remember” she continued “your act is so griveously vile and ghastly that its ignominy shall always accompany you till the Doomsday.”

Ibne Ziad was angry and stunned that she could speak out so boldly in her helpless condition. He started to shout and threatened her. But Bibi Zainab continued, narrating the inhuman atrocities perpetrated by Yazid’s forces in Karbala. Her speech transformed the mood of the joyful assembly as they listened with feelings of guilt, shame and indignity.

Ibne Ziad now turned to Imam Zainulabideen and asked, “Who is this man?” “He is Ali, son of Imam Hussian” came the reply from one who stood around. Ibne Ziad said, “We had received the report that Ali ibnul Hussain was killed by God in Karbala!” “Yes, I had a brother named Ali,” replied Imam Sajjad (A.S.), “who was killed by your army in Karbala.” “No, it was God who killed him,” came the angry retort from Ibne Ziad.

In reply, Imam Sajjad (A.S.) recited this verse of the Quran, “God takes the souls at the time of their death and that which has not died, in its sleep; He withholds that against which He has decreed death, but loses the other till a stated term.” (43:39). The calm reply enraged Ibne Ziad who cried, “What impudence! How dare you argue with me!” Then he ordered his men to behead the Imam. Bibi Zainab, when she saw this, came in between Imam Sajjad (A.S.) and Ibne Zaid’s men and cried out to Ibne Ziad, “Ibne Ziad, are you not ashamed? Do you intend to kill all of our men? It is impossible! You will have to kill me first before you put your hands on my nephew.”

Ibne Ziad was surprised at this scene of love and courage. He clearly saw that Bibi Zainab intended what she had said. Then, desisting from the idea, he said, “Indeed, blood relationship is a strong bond!” Ali ibnul Hussain (A.S.) told his aunt, “Dear aunt, be calm and allow me to speak directly to him.” Then taking a few steps forward he said to Ibne Ziad, “You threaten me with death? Do you not know that martyrdom is our inheritance and our merit?”

By this time, Ibne Ziad had understood that this kind of exchange was not to his benefit. Perhaps it was at this moment that Imam Hussain (A.S.)’s head attracted his attention and with a cane, that he had in his hand, pointed to Imam Hussain

(A.S.)’s lips and teeth and at the same time commencing an absurd highhanded harangue.

Zaid ibne Arqam, an aged companion of the Prophet was present. When he saw that Ibne Ziad’s impertinence had come to this extent, he cried out in protest, “Ibne Ziad! Take away your cane! God is witness that I have seen many times the Prophet of God kissing these lips.” And with these words, he got up and weeping loudly left the assembly. Ibne Ziad realized that with the honourable station Zaid ibne Arqam possessed in the society, the matter could end ruinously for him. He cried after Zaid, “Do not cry. You have become old and have lost your wits. Do not weep at a time of great victory as this. Had you not been old and decrepit as you are, I would have had you beheaded this moment!”

When the court dispersed, the prisoners were taken to a house near the mosque of Koofa. Ibne Ziad tried to get his letter ordering the killing of Imam Hussain from Umar Saad but was unable to do so. Feelings of guilt and shame festered in the minds of the Kufians who were ordered to gather the next day to be addressed by Ibne Ziad. He began, “Thank God that He separates the Truth and truthful from falsehood and its followers and gave manifest victory to ‘Ameerulmomineen’ Yazid and his supporters....” His speech however was interrupted boldly by Abdullah ibne Afeel Kindi who roared at Ibne Ziad. “O enemy of God! Do you consider yourself a Muslim? How dare you utter all that apostacy and impertinence regarding the Prophet’s family whom God has praised in the Quran.”

The cry of protests fell like a thunderbolt and Ibne Ziad could hardly control his anger. “Bring him I’ll punish him here and now.” His tribesmen took the old man away. Later on, however, Ibne Ziad’s soldiers arrested him and brought him before the governor. He threatened the old man with death but was met with this reply, “Thank God I had always prayed that I might be martyred at the hands of the wicked of men. I took part in the battles of Jamal and Sifeen but did not attain martyrdom. Now I am happy that God has shown his kindness and my prayers have been accepted. I’m happy I will be martyred at the hands of a wicked man like you. This angered Ibne Ziad, “Take him out and behead him” he cried. The guards took him out and Abdullah ibne Afeel attained the martyrdom he had so eagerly prayed for.

Am hasibta anna as-haabal kahfi

war raqeemi

kaanu min aayatina ajaban.

In the name of Allah, the all-Beneficient, the all-Merciful.

Do you suppose that the Companions of the Cave and the Inscription were among our wonderful signs ?

(Sura Al Kahf 18:9)

This verse is taken from the sura Al Kahf that tells the story of the cave. The event of the cave is a great sign and a landmark of guidance to humanity towards earning the faith in Allah. In a place called Ephesus on the west coast of Asia Minor, ruled a cruel tyrant who persecuted the faithful ones. Seven believers escaped from the town and took refuge in a mountain. During their flight they met a shepherd, with his dog, who also accompanied them. The cruel King pursued the fugitives, who feared for their lives. They put their trust in the Almighty and prayed to Him to rescue them from the merciless heathens. Faqaalu rabbana aatina minlladunka rahmatan wa hayyi lana min amrina rashdan, “O our Lord grant us mercy from unto Thee and provide for us in our affairs a right course.”

Allah heard their prayers and a sound sleep were cast on them, so that they might not be disturbed in the least by what happened outside the cave. This state of sleep continued for hundreds of years. People, who came to find them, reported them dead and the king ordered that the cave be closed with a tablet with the name of the men and the date of the happening inscribed on it. The event is named, therefore as, the story of the Kahf war Raqeem meaning the Cave and the Inscribed Tablet.

These people of the cave, the ashaabe Kahf, could have surrendered themselves to the brutal tyrant; but they resorted to escape the clutches of the tyrant and leave the matter to the will of the Lord. Similarly, Imam Hussain did not surrender to the ungodly tyrant Yazid, son of Moaviya; but sought to sacrifice all he had to uphold the Truth.

It was seen, after the massacre in Karbala that Imam Hussain's head was reciting the ayat describing the event of the Cave. It was also perhaps to remind people that as the Quran indicate that those who are killed in the way of God are alive. The ayat of the Quran tells us that the shaheed, those who are slain in the way of Allah, 'qatilu fi sabeehillah', should not be considered dead.

The journey from Kufa to Shaam was a long and arduous one. The caravan marched on and on through the hot desert, known as Vaadi us Shaam. Imam Zainulabideen was made to travel on the thorny desert sand on foot, while the ladies and children were taken on bare backs of camels. Many children fell off the camels and died. The mothers would scream in anguish, but no one cared. Some mothers lost their babies they were carrying. Bibi Zainab would dig a grave in the hot sand for each of the babies with her hands. When she buried them she would write Haza Mohsin e Karbala, perhaps recalling how her own mother, Bibi Fatima, had suffered when she was crushed behind the door of her house and lost her unborn child, Mohsin.

During the march Bibi Sakina the four-year-old daughter of Imam Hussain fell from the camels' back and was left behind. An alarm was raised but the soldiers took no heed. Khooli, who carried the Imam's head on the lance, suddenly found that the spear fell from his hand and got firmly rooted on the ground. In spite of repeated efforts it could not be dislodged and remained firm. Shimr came to the fourth Imam and angrily threatened to lash him if Imam Hussain's head did not move.

The ailing son of Hussain went to his father's naiza. He noticed that the tearful eyes of Imam Hussain were looking in the direction of the desert. He looked up and was told by his aunt Zainab that his sister Sakina was missing, having fallen off the camel. Imam Zainulabideen told Shimr that Bibi Sakina must be brought back. When this was done, the spear could be dislodged and the caravan continued its march towards Damascus.

Another incident that is related is when the caravan stopped at a hermitage. The pious hermit, who was given the responsibility of guarding the heads, had a vision where he saw prophets and angels descending from heaven to keep a watch over the head. The hermit demanded to know the identity of the head from Shimr. On learning that this was Hussain, the grandson of the Prophet Mohamad, the hermit was so shocked that he condemned and cursed Yazid and Shimr. The hermit was brutally killed for his outspoken condemnation and so achieved martyrdom for the love of Imam Hussain A.S.

Sometimes the five thousand strong contingent of Yazid's forces that accompanied the Imam's head had to face opposition from the populace in the towns. When people realised that it was the family of the Prophet who had been brutally massacred in Karbala, there was loud mourning. The men of Seebore, led by an old gentleman, gave resistance. Clad in armour and well equipped with weapons they obstructed the way of Yazid's cavalry carrying Imam Hussain's head. At the bridge leading to the town, a severe skirmish took place and six hundreds of Yazid's men perished. Khooli was forced to take another route abandoning his idea of passing through Seebore.

Bismillahir Rahmanir Rahiim.
Wal lazeena yaquloona rabbana
hab lana min azwaajina wa zurriyatina qurrata aayunin
wa ja alna lilmutaqeena imama.

In the name of Allah, the all-Beneficient, the all-Merciful.

And those who say “Our Lord!

Grant us

Comfort in our spouses and descendants and make us Imams of the God wary.”

(Sura Al Furqan 25:74).

This verse identifies the holy Ahlebaith for they were the ‘imamul mutaqeen’, the (Imams) leaders of the God wary. They possessed the twelve qualities spelt out in the verses 63 to 74 of this Quranic sura. They are the Ibaadar Rahmaan the servants of the Beneficient (God). The very epithet ‘ibada’ from ‘abd’ a quality so important in man’s relationship to the Almighty that it was chosen to describe the best of Allah’s creation – Prophet Mohamad (P.B.U.H.) ‘abduhu wa rasooluhu’ as we are reminded in every prayer.

- These servants of Allah display no pride and walk on the earth humbly, without affectation.
- They possess knowledge ‘ilm’ and deal with the ignorant with patience and goodness, saying ‘salam’.

- They spend their time in prayer and prostration and pass the night in tahajjud.
- They have fear of the Lord.
- When they spend, they show neither extravagance nor niggardliness.
- They have faith in the Oneness of God
- Commit no sin or killing
- They are away from adultery and
- Respect the rights of others, not giving false witness 'la yash hadoona a zoor'.
- They spend their time in tilawat, tearful and with concentration 'zukirin bi aayaati rabbihim'.
- They think before taking any step and
- They pray that their wives and descendants be a joy to their eyes. They train their families in the way of the Lord.

Possessing all the above qualities makes them worthy of Imamat of the pious ones. When God grants this high office, the Quran points out that they would be rewarded with the high stations in Paradise for their patience, wherein they shall meet with honours and salutations. 'Tahiyatan wa salama' and would reside there forever in an excellent resting place, 'Qalideena feeha hasinat mustaqaran wa muqama'.

When we look closely at the life of our Imams we find that our first Imam Ameerulmomineen (A.S.) had this undoubted gift from Allah, where his wives and offspring were indeed a joy to the eyes. His was the household where the ‘qurratul ain’ were Imam Hasan and Imam Hussain, the leaders of the Youths of Paradise. They were so addressed in Hadees e Kisa by their mother, the Qairunissa the leader of all the women in the world, Sayyeda Fatima Zehra. Imam Ali’s daughters Bibi Zainab and Bibi Kulsoom were ladies of such stature that when the edifice of Islam was crumbling, they raised it up through their sermons in Kufa and Shaam. His other children included valiant mujahids like Hazrat Abbas and Jafar, Usman and Abdullah, the sons of Janabe Ummul Baneen.

Janabe Ummul Baneen’s name was Fatima binte Huzzan ibne Khalid. She came from a tribe well known across Arabia for its valour and courage. Imam Ali married her in 26 A.H., about 15 years after the shahadat of Bibi Fatima. From the very first day when she entered Hazrat Ali’s house, Ummul Baneen treated the children of Bibi Fatima Zehra with great respect and veneration. She brought up her own children to consider Imam Hasan, Imam Hussain, Bibi Zainab and Bibi Kulsoom, not as brothers and sisters but as masters and mistresses.

When Imam Hussain left Madina in the month of Rajab in 60 Hijra, Hazrat Abbas and his three brothers went with him. When these four brothers came to say goodbye to their mother, Ummul Baneen, she said: “Oh my sons, I am so proud that Imam Hussain has agreed to take all the four of you with him. Remember, you must always protect the Imam and his children. Fatima Zehra's daughters are also in the caravan. Always be obedient to them. Let no harm come to any one of them."

All through the journey the four brothers served Imam Hussain AS and his family. On the day of Ashoor, Hazrat Abbas and his brothers gave their lives for Islam and Imam Hussain. The news of the tragedy of Karbala was announced in Madina on 20th Moharram, When Hazrat Ummul Baneen heard the news she could only ask, "O bringer of bad tidings, when Hussain was butchered by the tyrant of Damascus, where was my son Abbas? Where were my sons Mohamad and Usman and Jafar? How could Hussain be killed while my sons were there to defend him?" Every man with Hussain was killed, she was told.

Janabe Ummul Baneen turned towards Baqee and cried out. "My lady Fatima, accept my condolences on the martyrdom of your beloved Hussain. I do not mourn my sons Abbas, Mohamad, Usman and Jafar because I had reared them to be in the service of Hussain, to live for him and die for him. O my lady, you from Heaven must have seen them each dying valiantly, as great sons of a great father."

After Karbala she did not like to be called Ummul Baneen (mother of sons) anymore. “Do not call me Ummul Baneen.” She missed her brave sons. “I was Ummul Baneen till my brave Hyderi youth were alive,” she lamented.” Now I’m nothing.” She could hardly imagine how her brave son Abbas could have been attacked, “Oh my Allah, if his arms were severed, how then did he fall from his horse? No one would have dared come near him while he was armed. His head was wounded, only after he lost his arms, I’m sure.”

It is said that Janabe Ummul Baneen would go to the cemetery of Bagee in Madina and weep for Imam Hussain and her sons. The pathos in her lamentation moved everyone to tears. Even those like Marwan ibne Hakam, an arch enemy of the Ahlebaith, could not help crying whenever he heard the lamentation.

The Holy Quran says:

Bismillahir Rahmanir Rahiim.

Wa yutafu alaihim bi aaniyatin mein Fizzatin wa akwaabin kaanat qawareera qawareera min fizatin qaddaroooha taqdeera.

In the name of Allah, the all-Beneficent, the all-Merciful.

They will be served around with vessels of silver and goblets of crystal

-crystal of silver-

(from) which they dispense in a precise measure.
(Sura Dahr 76: 15,16).

These verses are taken from the Sura Dahr, revealed in the Holy Quran, in praise of the Ahlebaith. The occasion for the revelation of the sura was when once Imam Hasan and Imam Hussain, the two grandsons of the Holy Prophet, were ill. Their parents, Imam Ali and Bibi Fatima, had made a vow that they would keep a fast for three days. Accordingly, when the children recovered, Imam Ali, Bibi Fatima, Imam Hasan, Imam Hussain and Fizza fasted.

Five loaves of oats were prepared and just when they sat down to eat to break their day long fast, a man cried at the door of their house for some food, saying, ‘O People of the house (Ahlul Bayt) of the Prophet of Allah, I am a poor man, feed me.’ Everyone, including Janabe Fizza gave away to him their share of the bread. They, then, broke their fast with water and slept without food.

Next day they fasted and Bibi Fatima prepared five loaves and again as they were sitting down to break their fast, a man appeared at their door and cried, “O People of the house of the Prophet of Allah, I am an orphan, hungry with nothing to eat, feed me.” They all gave away their loaves to the orphan and remained hungry.

On the third day of their fast and in the evening just as they sat down to break it, a person appeared and cried, “O People of the house of the Prophet of Allah, I am a helpless captive, hungry, feed me.” They once again gave away their loaves to him and broke their fast with water. Their remaining hungry, for the sake of Allah and giving in charity all they had to eat, was so liked by Allah that Sura Dahr was revealed.

Jananbe Fizza, too, had the honour of the revelation of the verses of praise from Allah. Indeed the very word 'Fizza' is mentioned three times in the sura. 'Fizza' means silver and the ayats quoted above speak of the silver goblets wherein the inhabitants of jannat will be served pure drink, with zanjabeel. Five verses later, the word Fizza is used again to describe the shiny bracelets (asaaveera min fizzati) adorning the people in Heaven.

Fizza, a maidservant in Bibi Fatima's house was treated with respect and love. Menial tasks were shared as Bibi Fatima and Fizza took turns to do household chores. She is mentioned by name in the last farewell of Imam Hussain in Karbala. Fizza accompanied the Ahlebaith and shared the tribulations of the journey from Karbala to Kufa and from Kufa to Shaam.

In the court of Yazid she took a bold stance and stood by Bibi Fatima when the tyrant Yazid threatened to kill her. "Who is that person who is trying to shelter behind the old woman and why?" Yezid bawled. "This is Zainab," Shimr replied. "She is the daughter of Ali and Fatima and the old woman standing in front of her is Fizza the Abbysinian princess, who takes pride in calling herself the slave of Fatima and Zainab."

"Throw her aside. How dare she hide Zainab?" bawled Yazeed Seeing Shimr advance towards her, Fizza turned towards the Abyssinian slaves standing behind Yazeed and called “O brothers of my native land! How can you watch an aged lady from your country being molested in this manner? Won’t you protect me from this tyrant?” The slaves, their pride roused, turned to Yazeed saying, “Stop Shimr. If anything happens to Fizza, blood will flow in this court.” Yazeed, shocked at this affront from his slaves, panicked and gave orders to Shimr to stop.

Fizza suffered with the Ahlebaith the atrocities in the Zindaane Shaam. When the Ahlebaith were released she returned with them to Madina via Karbala.

Abul Qasim Qushariri relates,

“Once I was left behind in my caravan, alone in a plain. There I saw a lady whom I asked, Who are you?”

She replied, And say salam (i.e. Peace the Muslim form of greeting) for they shall soon know! (Sura Az Zukhruf 43:89).

So I greeted her in the Islamic way by uttering the words Salamun Alaikum (peace be on you) and asked her, “What are you doing here?”

She replied, “And when Allah guides there can be none to lead astray” (Sura az Zumar 39:37).

On hearing her reply, I asked her, “Are you from mankind or from the genii?”

She replied, “O children of Adam! Wear you beautiful clothes...” (Sura al Araf 7:31).

I asked her “Where are you coming from?”

She replied, These are like those who called from a place far off.” (Sura Fussilat 41:44).

I asked, “Where are you intending to go?”

She said, “.....and (purely) for Allah, is incumbent upon mankind, the pilgrimage to the House...” (Sura Ali Imran 3:97).

I enquired, “When did you get separated from the caravan?”

She replied, And indeed We created the heavens and the earth and what is between them two, in six days.....” (Sura 50:38).

Then I asked her, “Do you feel hungry?”

She replied, Nor did we give them bodies that ate no food...” (Sura Ambiya 21:8).

I gave her food and asked her to hurry up to catch the caravan but not to rush.

She replied, Oh no soul does Allah place a burden greater than it can bear...” (Sura Baqrah 2:286).

I suggested that she sit on the camel behind me.

She replied, “Had there been (in the Heavens and the Earth) (other) deities except Allah, there would have been confusion in both” (Sura Ambiya 21:22).

On hearing this, I got down from my camel and mounted her on it. When she mounted the camel, she said, “Glory to Him who subjected this to us” (Sura Zauhruf 43:13).

When we overtook the caravan, I asked her, “Is there anyone in the caravan who is your relative?”

She replied, 1. O Dawud! Verily, We have appointed you a viceregent in the earth.....” (Sura Sad 38:26). 2. And Mohamad is not but a Messenger (Sura Ali Imran 3:144). 3. O Yahya! Hold the book fast! (Sura Maryam 19:12). 4. O Musa! Verily it is, I am your lord.. (Sura an Nahl 27:9). These are the name of four Prophets.

I began to call out these four names at which four youths came out of the caravan and ran towards her.

I asked her who these four youths were and she replied, wealth and children are the adornment of this World. (Sura Al Hijr 18:46).

When the four youths reached near their mother, she said,

O my father! Employ him, verily the best of these who you can employ is the strong (man), the trusted (one). (Sura Al Qasas 28:26). Whereupon the youths gave me some money at which she said And verily Allah gives abundantly to whomsoever ever He wills.....(Sura Baqrah 2:261).

The youths added whatever they had already given to me. I enquired from the youths as to who that respectable noble lady was and the youths replied,

“She is our mother, Fizza, the maid servant of Bibi Fatima- the daughter of the Holy Prophet. She has conversed in nothing but by the verses of the Holy Quran for the last twenty years.”

Salawat

Such was the calibre of Janabe Fizza, the handmaid of Bibi Fatima Zehra. Today we recall another lady who had the love of the Ahlebaith in her heart. This was Shireen, who was once a handmaid of Umme Rabaab, the wife of Imam Hussain. She was given her freedom, but as she left Madina she had asked tearfully when she would get the honour of the ziarat of the Imam and his family. Imam Hussain had promised he would visit her one-day. Shireen waited every day, for she knew that the Imam would never break a promise.

Shireen in her love for the Ahlebaith would tell all her neighbours and friends about the Imam and her Bibi. She promised them she would identify each of the Bibis to the ladies. She prepared her house by cleaning it thoroughly and being ready for the arrival of the Ahlebaith.

One morning there was great commotion outside the city gates. Shireen was excited. This must be the day she had been waiting for. “It will be my Imam” she cried. She turned to her husband “Go and find out if the Imam has come” she said.

“You will see the banner of Islam, the alam, with him. Ali Akbar, who is the very image of the Prophet will be there. So will Abbas. When the Bibis arrive make sure there is no one in the street. Even little boys must not go on roof tops. The Ahlebaith are from the family of Bibi Fatima.”

As her husband hurried towards the outskirts of the city, a strange sight met his eyes. Some heads were being carried on spears. A group of ladies bereft of their veils were on backs of bare camels. A weak and frail youth with heavy chains around his neck and feet was at the head of the caravan. There was wailing and lamenting. Shireen’s husband turned back despondent in disappointment. Hearing the lamentation, Shireen had come out. She recognised the heads on the spears. “Oh my master, my Maula Hussain. Is this how you have kept your promise? Who has killed you? Where is Abbas? Where is Akbar? O my Allah, where is my Bibi? Where are Hazrat Zainab and Umme Kulsoom?”

In the name of Allah, the all-Beneficient, the all-Merciful.

Whoever acts righteously,

( whether) male or female, should be faithful

We will revive them with a good life and pay them their reward

by thebest of what they used to do.

(Sura An Nahl 16:97).

The Quran makes clear the spirtual status of women and categorically states that both men and women, who practise the principles of Islam, will receive equal award for their efforts. Each of the five pillars of Islam, the Usool e Deen is as important for women as for men. In the eyes of Allah the noblest is one who practises Taqwa. Women, as well as men, are made responsible and advised to practise virtues – faith, truthfulness, submission to God’s will, charity, patience, piety and righteousness. They should seek knowledge, which is a duty for every Muslim, male or female. Their intellectual capability will lead them to becoming more God conscious.

The ladies of the Holy Ahlebaith in Karbala showed how great and magnanimous they were, participating whole-heartedly in sacrifices to save Islam. They had accompanied Imam Hussain from Madina and suffered the difficulties of the arduous journey in the desert. In Karbala, they watched their loved ones; their young children suffer from thirst and hunger. They witnessed the massacre of all the male members of the Hussaini camp as they went one by one to be killed by the brutal Yazidi soldiers. After the day of Ashoor, their tents were looted, their home set on fire and even the veils, that covered their head, snatched away. They were made prisoners and taken to Kufa and Shaam. Such was their patience and valour that we don't hear of a single complaint made by a single lady.

The depth of tragedy of Karbala would be incomplete without mentioning the contribution made by the ladies and children. It is virtually impossible to say how many ladies accompanied the Imam's group, but certain names have been mentioned. The most outstanding of these is Hazrat Zainab, Saniye Zehra, the daughter of Maula Ali and Bibi Fatima. Without Bibi Zainab's sermons in Kufa and Damascus the message of Imam Hussain would have been incomplete. She showed tremendous courage and stood up to the very tyrant Yazid, who had inflicted the sufferings.

In Karbala there were six daughters of Imam Ali, including Bibi Zainab and Bibi Kulsoom daughters of Bibi Fatima. Bibi Zainab was married to Abdullah ibne Jafar e Tayyar and Bibi Kulsoom was the wife of Mohamad ibne Jafar e Tayyar. In addition there was Fatima binte Ali, wife of Sayeed ibne Aqeel, Ruqqaya binte Ali wife of Muslim ibne Aqeel, Khadija binte Ali wife of Abdur Rahman ibne Aqeel and Umme Hani binte Ali, wife of Jafar ibne Aqeel.

Other illustrious ladies who have been mentioned by name in the chronicle of Karbala are the wives of Imam Hussain. Umme Rabaab, the daughter of Umral Qays, who had two children, the infant Ali Asghar, martyred in Karbala and the four-year-old Sakina, who breathed her last in the Zindaan e Shaam. Umme Laila, daughter of Murrah bin Urwa was the mother of Ali Akbar, the eighteen-year-old son of Imam Hussain. Umme Ishaq was the mother of Abdullah.

Imam Hussain had three daughters who were: Fatima Kubra, Fatima Sugra and Sakina. According to some sources, Fatima Sugra was left in Madina as she was ill, when Imam Hussain started his journey. Other names of ladies that are mentioned are Lubaba, Ruqaiyya the daughter of Hazrat Muslim and Umme Farwa the widow of Imam Hasan. Lubaba, daughter of Ubaydallah ibne Abbas ibne Abdul Muttalib was married to Hazrat Abbas.

Some ladies were those who worked in the household of the holy Ahlebaith: the most famous being Fizza, the handmaid of Bibi Fatima. She accompanied the Ahlebaith from Madina to Mecca to Karbala. She was heard in the bazaar of Kufa and Shaam admonishing the onlookers. She took a bold stance in the court of Yazid to defend the position of Bibi Zainab.

It was virtually impossible for the Ansar e Hussain to bring their families and wives with them. They themselves had left Koofa in very difficult circumstances. Insipite of this, we hear of ladies like the wife of Muslim ibne Ausaja and the daughter of Hujr ibne Adi being presnt in Karbala. Also present was Dulham binte Umro, the wife of Zuhayr ibne Qayn. She had advised him to respond to Imam Hussain's call. Umme Wahab, the wife of Abdullah ibne Umayr Kalbi had accompanied her husband from Kufa. She had emotionally picked up the stick of the tent, ready to fight the Yazeedi forces in Karbala, but the Imam had stopped her saying, "Return towards the women and stay inside. Women are not required to perform Jihad".

The caravan that had passed through Kufa and cities of Iraq and Syria was now approaching

Damascus. It was indeed a tremendous trial for the Ahlebaith. When someone asked our fourth Imam, which was the hardest moment of his journey, the reply was AshShaam, AshShaam, AshShaam. The Imam was probably recalling the Bazaar e Shaam, the Darbar e Shaam and the Zindaan e Shaam. When they reached the outskirts of Damascus, the Ahlebaith were made to halt. A courier was sent to Yazid to inform him of the arrival and permission sought to enter. They were asked to wait and according to some sources, it took many hours. The door to the city where the Ahlebaith waited was later known as 'Bubus Sa-aath', the door of hours.

The sun was blazing overhead and crowds began to gather in the street as it was announced that someone, who had risen against Yazid, had been defeated and their family taken prisoner. The people of Syria were told that the 'enemies' of Islam had been defeated and killed and the rule of the Khalifa of the Muslims was, thus, strengthened and made secure. The real identity of these martyrs and ladies was not revealed. People started to come to watch from close quarters and wore festive clothes and the streets were decked to celebrate the victory.

The order was issued that the prisoners be brought forth. They were all tied together using a single rope and the frail Imam Zainulabideen, extremely tired after the long journey, took slow steps as heavy chains encircled his feet and hands. The heads of the martyrs were carried on lances. As this procession made its way through the narrow covered bazaar, the children were crying with hunger and thirst. Women onlookers started to throw sacrificial dates towards them. “Throw these away” said Bibi Zainab. “We do not eat sadqa, we are the family of the Prophet”.

It is narrated from Sahl that as the heads of the martyrs passed under a lofty balcony, on which were seated five women in attractive costumes, accompanied by a slave girl, one of them picked a stone and flung it at the head of Imam Hussain. This pained me so much that I prayed to God that she and her companions, who rejoiced at her actions, might all be destroyed. Suddenly the balcony came down, smashing all its occupants into pieces.

Let us join our twelfth Imam in his salams as he says in the Ziyarate Nahia,

“My salams on those ladies of the Ahlebaith, who were taken prisoner like slaves and shackled in iron fetters and forced to ride on the bare backs of camels.

My salaams on those, whose faces were hurt by the intense scorching heat as they were helplessly taken through deserts. Their hands were tied behind their necks as they were taken through the streets.”

In the name of Allah, the all-Beneficient, the all-Merciful.

Let the faithless not suppose that the respite that We grant them is good for their souls:
We give them respite only that they may increase in sin and ther is a painful chastisement for them.
(Sura Ale Imran 3:177)

This powerful verse, conveying the warning to disbelievers that their sins would incur chastisement in the hereafter, is taken from the third chapter (Ale Imran) of the Holy Quran. It speaks of the infidels (the kafirs), who may seem to be prospering; but their prosperity is no more than an opportunity to them to increase their lack of faith. The ultimate end of their actions will be a painful chastisement.

The word 'Kafaru' is derived from Kufr, which means to cover. It has been used in the Quran to mean to cover the Truth. Those who lack faith, eemaan, will not be able to avail themselves of the guidance, whether they are warned or not. Their hearts are sealed, they cannot see or hear. Their appetite for sin grows more and more as they venture beyond the bounds set by Allah. Sinking deeper into sin, the cup of their iniquity fills. So they turn away from God and in doing so, incur the wrath of God, who will punish them in the hereafter.

Bibi Zainab A.S. used the ayat quoted at the beginning of this hadees to remind Yazid that he would be punished for his actions in the hereafter. She made it clear to all in the darbar, the court of Yazid, that this tyrant is not even a Muslim, that he is a Kafir. He had no belief in the Almighty, in Prophethood or Imamat. He did not realise that Qiyamat would come and that he would have to answer for his actions.

The Ahlebaith had to endure the tribulations of the long journey from Karbala to Kufa and from Kufa to Shaam. When they arrived outside Damascus they had to wait long hours, as the city was made ready and festivities completed. They had to endure the calamity of being taken bare headed, without veils through the crowded streets of Damascus. The heads of the martyrs were paraded on lances and people jostled from all sides as the ladies of the Ahlebaith were dragged through to appear before the court. As they approached the door, they were stopped and were tied with ropes and herded together like goats. Made to wait, while Yazid played chess and splashed wine, our sabir fourth Imam and the Bibis were finally dragged into the court. Yazid gloated over his victory. ‘My ancestors at Badr would have been happy today. Bani Hashim had staged a play to gain power. There was no wahi, (divine revelation).’

Yazid then began striking Imam Hussain’s severed head, which was placed in a silver salver. In his drunken state, he began to hit the holy Imam’s lips with a stick. Bibi Zainab, witnessing these actions, spoke out boldly. Every word of her qutba, sermon, delivered with God given courage, spoke volumes. It was recorded in history forever and exposed Yazid as an unbelieving tyrant. It was and still is an invitation for all to think and ponder over the message of Islam. It demonstrated the unflinching faith, which stood the test of every imaginable tribulation.

Bereft of all her loved ones, looted in Karbala, brought before this inhuman tryant, subjected to every cruelty imaginable, this daughter of Ali and Fatima began:

“Alhamdo llillhi Rabbilaalimeen – Praise be to Allah, the Lord of the worlds and blessings on my grandfather, the chief of divine prophets.

O Yazid, Allah says, and his word is true, that: Then evil was the end of those who did evil because they rejected the communications of Allah and used to mock them.

O Yazid, do you believe that you have succeeded in closing the sky and the earth for us and that we have become your captives just because we have been brought before you in a row and that you have secured control over us? Do you believe that we have been afflicted with insult and dishonour by Allah and that he has given you power?

You have become boastful of the apparent victory that you have secured and you have started feeling jubilant and proud over this prestige and honour. You think that you have achieved worldly good that your affairs have become stabilised and our rule has fallen into your hands.

Wait for a while. Do not be so joyful.

Have you forgotten Allah's saying: the unbelievers should not carry the impression that the time allowed to them by us is good for them. Surely we give them time so that they may increase their evil deeds, and eventually they will be given insulting chastisement."

After this powerful tirade, she addressed Yazid as 'Ibn Tulaqa' son of a freed slave, reminding him that her grandfather, the Holy Prophet, had so generously freed Yazid's grandfather, Abu Sufyan, after the conquest of Mecca.

“Is this your justice that the ladies of your household remain veiled and we, the Prophet's family should be paraded like this? You have insulted our dignity, our faces have been unveiled and your villainous soldiers have exposed us to public view and all along the journey people have looked at us. We do not have our male companions any more to come to our rescue.

O Yazid! Your misdeeds have clearly proved your rebellion towards God and the message the Holy Prophet (my grandfather) brought to this world, and this has proved beyond doubt that you refuse to honour the Prophetic Message by God.” “What can one expect,” she continued, “from someone whose ancestors chewed the liver of martyrs?” Here Bibi Zainab was referring to Hinda, Yazid's grandmother who had in the battle of Ohad chewed the liver of the shaheed (martyr) Hazrat Hamza, the Prophet's uncle.

She reminded him that in committing atrocities, Yazid was preparing for his own ignominy and “you have cut your own skin and your own flesh to pieces.” Oppressors will reap the benefit of their evil actions when they will be brought to justice. On the other hand “Reckon not those who are killed in Allah's way as dead, nay they are alive and are provided sustenance from their

Lord,” continued Bibi Zainab, quoting again from the Quran. “Allah is sufficient to deal with you” she told him. “He is our relief and protection. Praise be to the Almighty who gave good to His friends and granted them success in their arms.”

Throughout the sermon, Bibi Zainab was continually reminding Yazid that it was Imam Hussain AS and the Holy Prophet SAW who were the true victors. Yazid might have heaped all kind of troubles on the Ahlebaith, but his aim of destroying Islam was not achieved. On the other hand, the aim of Imam Hussain and the Ahlebaith was granted success.

This was made apparent right in the court of Yazid, which was to celebrate his success. Instead, there was uproar. People began to weep and some openly challenged Yazid. The ambassador from Rome rebuked him and could not believe that Yazid had killed the Prophet’s grandson.

Yazid then turned to Imam Zainulabideen AS and threatened that he would be put to death. The young Imam bodily replied, “For me the worst possible torture has been my standing here with my mothers and sisters, with my aunts and cousins, without any veils to cover their heads and faces. Do not for a moment think that I am intimidated or frightened by your threats. We, the descendants of the Holy Prophet of Islam, peace be on Him, have been trained from childhood to face afflictions and sufferings. We know that those who are loved by God are tried by Him and if they remain steadfast and true to their faith in Him, then only He bestows His Divine favours on them in the life hereafter, which is permanent and not transitory like this worldly life.”

Yazid was taken aback, then tried to extricate himself, afraid that there might be an uprising said, “Why are you blaming me? It was God who inflicted this punishment on you and your family.” The Imam reprimanded him saying, “Do not distort and misinterpret the words of God. His punishment always overtakes the tyrant. Does not the Holy Quran narrate the instances of the prophets suffering untold hardships at the hands of the people to whom they had come to preach?”

Yazid was speechless. A courtier to curry favour, turned to Yazid and asked that one of the prisoners, the four-year-old girl be given to him as a slave. Bibi Sakina, on hearing this, looked helplessly towards her brother and her aunt, and started to cry. The man advanced towards the orphan. Bibi Zainab, infuriated, said, “You wretched seinle minion of Yazid. Have you lost all sense of shame that you want to enslave the grandchildren of the Prophet?” Turning to the man she said, “May the curse of Allah be upon you and hell your eternal abode. May your eyes be blinded and your limbs paralysed.” Immediate paralysis gripped the man, who fell dead.

Haye chachajan ka safar
Yaad jab ajata hai Baba
Dil mera phat jata hai Baba
Koofa ka aur Shaam ka manzar

Leke gaye jab hamein, bazme sitamgaar mein

Saat sau kursi nasheen baithe tha darbaar mein
Takht pe baitha tha sitamgar
Yaad jab ajata hai Baba
Dil mera phat jata hai Baba
Koofa ka aur Shaam ka manzar

Jab kiya Sajjad se aake kisi ne sawaal
Guzra kahan par Imam, aap ko zyada malaal
Kehte thay Ashaam mukarar
Yaad jab ajata hai Baba
Dil mera phat jata hai Baba
Koofa ka aur Shaam ka manzar

Kis musibat mein phasi hun main mehal se aakey
Naam Shabeer ka leti hoon tho ro dete hain
Naam jab poochti hoon sar ko jhuka lete hain

Hadees

The Holy Quran says:

Bismillahir Rahmanir Rahiim.

Wa minalayli fa tahajjud

bihi naafilatan llaka asa an yabasaka Rabbuka

maqaman mehmooda.

In the name of Allah the all-Beneficent, the all-Merciful.

And keep vigil for a part of the night

As a supererogatory (devotion) for you

It may be that your Lord will raise you to a praiseworthy position.

(Sura Al Isra 17:79).

Islam prescribes the daily prayers which are to be recited five times a day by every Muslim. In addition to these are the night prayers, the tahajjud, offered after midnight and before dawn. This prayer is not compulsory but highly commended. The glorious position mentioned in the above Quranic verse is the highest exaltation to which a mortal could rise.

The Holy Prophet SAW and the twelve Imams have recounted many merits of the Night Prayer. The reward of one rakat of the Night Prayer gets recompense of a thousand year's prayer. The believer's thousand needs of the world and the hereafter are fulfilled and future sins forgiven.

On the day of judgement he would be in the Muqame Mehmood (the position of great Praise and Glory). Angels would give him the good news on his resurrection from his grave and accompany him till he enters Paradise. He would be able to seek intercession for the sinners and the Lord will grant whatever he would command.

The night prayer, the namaze shab is the time when man stands before Allah, praying alone while the world is asleep. Praying with humility, praying for others as you take the names of momineen in 'qunoot' is putting others before self. Weeping silently asking Allah's forgiveness, in total submission to the Almighty, in the quiet of the night is a way of gaining Allah's pleasure. Nothing is dearer to Allah than a drop of tear shed in the darkness of the night. Imam Jafar Sadiq A.S. said "Never miss the midnight prayers qiyaami layl" and described the tahajjud as the honour of a believer, 'sharaful momin'. Imam Hussain A.S. in his last farewell turned to his sister Zainab and asked her not to forget him in her namaze Shab.

The Ahlebaith even in captivity never missed the Tahajjud prayers. We hear how the fourth Imam spent the night of eleventh Moharram in prayer after Ashoor in Karbala. Even in the Zindaane Shaam, the ladies of the Prophet's household and our ailing fourth Imam prayed nawafile tahajjud, regularly.

The Ahlebaith after enduring the tribulations of the bazaar and darbar e Shaam were sent to the Zindaan, a desolate ruin where the hot scorching sun made it unbearable during the day. When night came, the sudden drop of temperature in the desert made it extremely cold. Very little food and water was sent for the prisoners and no one's hunger and thirst was satisfied. The Bibis suffered the torture not only of the physical discomforts, but the mental agony of being separated from their loved ones. Their men (husbands, brothers, sons, nephews) had all been killed mercilessly and they had not even the opportunity to bury them or even mourn for them. They had been paraded through streets and made to stand before a crowded court, without a veil to cover their heads.

As night approached, the enveloping darkness seemed lit only with their tears. The fever that the fourth Imam had suffered had been made worse with the torture of the long journey. The long wait in the darbar and the indignity of witnessing his aunts and sisters without veils was so hard to bear. The Sabir Imam Syede Sajjad used to recall their agony of Shaam, years later saying, Ash Shaam, Ash Shaam, Ash Shaam when asked to name his greatest moment of hardship.

Umme Laila mourned for her eighteen year old son Akbar, who always had shown his mother such love and affection. The Bibis recalled how the valiant Abbas had taken care of them and how his head had been tied around the horse's neck as it kept falling off the lance. Umme Rabaab mourned for her six month old infant Ali Asghar, whose head had been severed after burial. Bibi Kulsoom and Bibi Zainab, pillars of strength for the ladies, tried their best to console their brother's four-year-old Sakina, the favourite daughter of Imam Hussain. Bibi Sakina found it extremely difficult to bear the hardships and would often ask, "When will we go home?"

According to some traditions, Hinda, the wife of Yazid, visited the Zindaan as she had heard that these prisoners were from Madina. Hinda was a devout and pious lady, who had before her marriage with Yazid, served as a lady in waiting in Bibi Zainab's household. Even after her marriage she retained her love for the Ahlebaith. As she heard the sound of wailing from the Zindaan, one day she decided to visit the prison.

When she approached the door of the Zindaan, Bibi Zainab and Umme Kulsoom wept silently. Hinda approached the fourth Imam, noting that he had heavy chains around his feet and neck; and asked him several questions:

"Which family do you belong to in Madina? Do you have any news about my Maula Hussain? How long have you been a prisoner? Why were you put in chains?"

Getting no direct replies to her questions, she looked closely at the ladies and cried out aghast, “It seems to be as if my Bibi Fatima is here. Tell me, who are you? Only last night I have seen her in my dream in a disconsolate state. Why doesn’t anyone look at me or answer my queries?”

Bibi Zainab could not bear it any more. She cried,

“O Hinda, I am Zainab and this is Kulsoom. The ladies you see here in the Zindaan are all from the family of the Holy Prophet.

The young man in chains is Ali ibnal Hussain, who was taken prisoner by Umr Saad. He was unable to fight for he was so ill on the day of Ashoor.

Each one of our men including Ali Akbar, Abbas, Qasim, Aun o Mohamad and even the infant Ali Asghar were all mercilessly killed in Karbala.

O Hinda, Yazid’s forces cruelly killed my brother Hussain, hungry and thirsty.”

Bismillahir Rahmanir Rahiim.

Innas Safa wal Marwaata min shaairallahi.

In the name of Allah the all-Beneficent the all-Merciful.

Indeed Safa and Marwa are among Allah's sacraments.

(Sura Baqarah 2:158)

The Holy Quran reminds us that Safa and Marwaa are among the signs of God. Allah SWT, has said in His divine revelation that among his sacraments, holy signs worthy of reverence, for people to ponder over are Safa and Marwa. What are Safa and Marwa? Where are they? What happened there? Why has Allah declared them to be His signs?

Safa and Marwa are the two hillocks in Mecca between which Bibi Hajira ran to and fro, as she searched for water to quench the thirst of her infant son, Ismail. Her anxiety, her hardship, her loneliness did not deter her from efforts to find a way through her difficulties. Nor did it dim her faith in the generosity and protection of the Almighty as she faced the crisis alone, trying to save her baby's life.

Allah asks us to remember the hardship suffered by Bibi Hajira. Indeed her actions were so dear to Allah that they were made a compulsory part of the rites of the Hajj, the annual pilgrimage to Mecca in Zilhijj made incumbent upon all Muslims, who can afford it.

Why has Allah invited Muslims for Hajj? Is it merely to complete rituals or it is to awaken the spirit of Muslims, to invite them to think. Islam is erroneously considered to be a religion that treats women unfairly. If we ponder on Allah's message, we will find that it is niyyat intentions, attitudes, whether it comes from man or woman, rich or poor, black or white, which are seen by Allah who is 'Aalimun niyaat' one who knows the hidden intentions of his creation.

The 'tawaf' circumambulation of Kaaba itself is linked to Bibi Hajira. The Kaaba is a cube shaped building, but to the west of the Kaaba is an addition, a short arched wall facing the Kaaba named the 'Hijre Ismail'. Hijr means skirt and the shape of the wall resembles a skirt. Bibi Hajira, the mother of Ismail, is buried within the semicircle that makes up the space between the Kaaba and the wall. Circling around the Kaaba without circling round the Hijre Ismail is not accepted. Bibi Hajira's house, which was next to the Kaaba and her grave within it, are part of the tawaf.

Who then was Hajira? Who was this great personality that if you leave out her grave as you go round the Kaaba, Allah does not accept your tawaf. If you do not perform ‘saiyi’ running from Safa and Marwa like she did, your Hajj is incomplete.

Bibi Hajira was a black Ethiopian slave, the handmaid of Bibi Sara. Prophet Abraham then had no children. Bibi Sara presented her handmaid Hajira to Hazrat Ibrahim. Hazrat Ismail was born. In compliance with Allah’s command, Prophet Ibrahim took the mother and son out of the native land and brought them to Mecca. As they parted, Bibi Hajira asked Abraham “O devotee of Allah, upon whom do you leave us here?” The Prophet consoled her “He who saved me and provided me with all that I needed and saved me from the fire of Nimrod. I leave you to His unfailing care.” Hajira replied, “I agree to God’s plan. He is quite sufficient for my child and me. I depend and rely upon Him.”

Bibi Hajira’s search for water is a lesson in selfless love, an endeavour for others than you. The baby Ismail was restless with thirst. There was no more water left and there was no water to be found anywhere around. Bibi Hajira began to search for water running from one place to the other. She ran seven times between the hills of Safa and Marwa. She could not find any water. She would go up Safa, look out for water, and then run down to where she had left the baby. Again and again she tried. She then abandoned her precious child totally to God's will. Suddenly, she found that fresh water was gushing out from under the feet of the baby and flowing into a small stream. 'Zamzam' said Bibi Hajira.

In the month of Zilhijj, in Mecca, we remember Bibi Hajira. The month of Mohraam, in Karbala, we see the embodiment of the same principles. The sacrifice is here completed. Umme Rabaab to save Islam has given not one but two of her children.

Ali Asghar was so thirsty. Bibi Rabaab paced up and down in the qaima. No water is to be found. The hordes of Yazid would not let water reach the thirsty children of the Ahlebaith. The baby Ali Asghar was killed in his father's arms, as Hurmula's arrow pierced his neck. Imam Hussain our sabir Imam moved forward, then took a step back saying, Inna lillahi wa inna ilahi rajaoon as he brought back the baby to Umme Rabaab. With the point of his sword, Zulfikaar, he dug a tiny grave to bury his infant son.

Today, we see Umme Rabaab facing another grave. This time it was her daughter Sakina, three years old. The place is the Zindaane Shaam and it was, our fourth Imam Zainulabideen in chains, who had to bury his darling sister.

Bibi Sakina was especially dear to her father Imam Hussain. He called her 'Qeeratun Niswaan' the best among the women, a title closely associated with his mother, Fatima Zehra, the Sayyedatun Nisa il alimeen. She was the favourite of Hazrat Abbas, who often used to ride up to the camel during the long journey from Madina to Mecca, from Mecca to Karbala, to make sure she was comfortable. Bibi Zainab was given a special reminder concerning this beautiful infant niece, when Imam Hussain bade his last farewell to his sister.

Alas, Bibi Sakina suffered terrible grief after Ashoor. We all know how she went out into the dark night looking for her father in the Shaame Gharibaan. We read of how she fell off the camel on the way to Koofa and how Imam Hussain's mace would not move till she was found and brought back. We hear how in Yazid's durbar, she was asked a number of questions. One of them was

"Why do you hide your face with your hands?" Bibi Sakina replied, "My hair is not long enough."

The next question from the cruel Yazid was "Why do you keep lifting your feet?"

Bibi Sakina boldly answered, "Do you not see? We have all been tied by one rope. My aunts and mother's arms have been tied and the same rope is around my neck. When they are bending, they are in pain. When they are standing, the rope lifts me up.”

The people in the durbar started to cry. Bibi Sakina's rope was taken off. Bibi Sakina was then, with the Ahlebaith, sent to a dark cell called Zindaan e Shaam.

Bibi Sakina was very unhappy in the prison 'Zindaan' of Damascus. This was a small place, which had no roof. The hot sun would make it very uncomfortable during the day; and at night, it would get very cold. Bibi Sakina missed her father Imam Hussain very much. She often asked her mother Bibi Rabaab and her aunt, Bibi Zainab when they would go home. When she saw birds flying to their nests in the evening she would ask, "When will we go home?" She would go to the locked door and say, "Will this not be opened for us?"

One night she was very restless. Bibi Zainab tried to comfort her and told her a story about Imam Hussain. Bibi Rabaab took her in her arms and finally, after crying for her father, Bibi Sakina went to sleep. But she woke up crying "I saw my father just now. Where is he?" She had woken up to the same darkness and to the sound of the chains that were round her brother's (Imam Zainulabideen's) feet.

Nothing would comfort her. Bibi Sakina could not stop crying. The guards outside reported to Yazid that the young daughter of Imam Hussain was extremely restless. The head of Imam Hussain, which was kept by Yazid, was sent. When Bibi Sakina saw her father's face, she cried 'Oh my father, where were you? I have been calling you. This place is so dark. I can hardly see anyone.' She told him how she had suffered, how she missed him. Hugging him, Bibi Sakina went quiet, very quiet. Umme Rabaab called, "Sakina wake up my child."

No reply came. The restless mother lifted her up but found her listless. Fearing that her daughter had fainted, she called Bibi Zainab.

"Look at Sakina! Read some dua for her. Recite the Quran. Oh my son Zainulabideen, come and look at your sister. I cannot wake her up."

The Imam came closer and taking Sakina in his arms said 'Inna lillahi wa inna ilahi rajaoon.'

A small grave was dug in the prison and the ladies wept inconsolably as the four year old daughter of Hussain was buried.

Our salaams to Bibi Hajira, our salaams to Umme Rabaab, our salaams to Sakina bintal Hussain, also known as Ruqqiyya in Shaam.

In the name of Allah the all Beneficent the all Merciful
Indeed Allah has bought from the faithful their souls and their possessions for Paradise to be theirs
They fight in the way of Allah
Kill and are killed.
A promise binding upon Him in the Torah and the Evangel and the Quran.
And who is truer to his promise than Allah?
So rejoice in the bargain that you have made with Him
and that is the great success
(Sura Al Baraat 9:111).

This Quranic ayat says Allah himself has purchased the life (anfususuhum) and wealth (amvaalahum) of the faithful (momineen). They sacrifice all they have in the way of the Lord. Paradise is their rightful due. The best and the greatest examples of such godly ones could be found only in the Ahlebaith, whose faith in Allah was matchless and whose deeds of sacrifice for Allah's sake, have no parallel in the history of mankind.

No nation or religion can present a comparable example to the martyrs of Karbala. Imam Hussain (A.S.) and the seventy-two faithful with him are examples of the greatest sacrifice ever seen. They suffered every kind of misery in the cause of Truth. It was Imam Hussain (A.S.), who saved Islam and established it for all times. The qualities described in the verse fighting in God's way, slaying for God and being slain, in the way of God was exemplified in Karbala.

The qualities of the godly souls are described in the verses, immediately following the ayat. These are they who turn towards God, worshiping and praising Him and fasting, bowing down in rukoo and sajda. 'At taiboonal, aabidoonal, hamudoonal, saaihoonal, rakioonal, sajidoon.' They are the ones who enjoin what is right 'aaminoonal bil maroof' and forbid what is wrong 'nahoonal anil munkar,' keeping within Allah's limits 'hafizoonal lihudoodillah.' The fourth Imam Zainulabideen (A.S.) has said that all these qualities are found in their due perfection in the Holy Prophet and the twelve holy Imams.

After almost a year in the Zindaan of Damascus, one day Yazid summoned the fourth Imam to the court once again. This time our Imam was told he was free to go. Then Yazid had the audacity to suggest that the Imam accept ‘blood money’ for the deaths of his family members in Karbala. “Give it to the Holy Prophet” replied the Imam. “Your actions will be judged by Allah and His Prophet”.

The news of the death in prison of the four-year-old daughter of Imam Hussain had spread through Damascus. People were asking questions and Yazid’s unpopularity was growing by the day. Yazid himself could not sleep and paced about frantically in the night. His household had turned against him, and after the heinous crime of the slaughter in Karbala, he found no peace. “You are free to go or stay in Damascus”, Yazid informed the Ahlebaith.

The fourth Imam said, “We wish to return to Madina via Karbala, but before that, we would like to mourn the martyrs of Karbala. We have not been yet allowed to grieve for our dear ones. Give us back the belongings you looted from us in Karbala. We cherish these things as our most precious possessions the chaadar of Fatima Zehra, and the garment (kurta) of Imam Hussain, Give us back the heads of the martyrs so that they can be interred in Karbala.” Yazid had to agree. A house was made available for the Ahlebaith, Bibi Zainab and Kulsoom, the widowed ladies and Imam Zainulabideen.

On reaching the house, Bibi Zainab found that a large number of ladies and men collected there. On her enquiring about the purpose of their call, she was told that the population of Damascus had come on a condolence visit. The men surrounded Imam Zainulabideen and offered sympathy to him. The ladies of Damascus went over to the separate quarters, where ladies of the Prophet’s family were sitting and, approaching each one of them, offered their sympathies also. Many amongst them were asking for details of the tragedy. Some were asking them about Bibi Sakina, whose days in Damascus as a prisoner were so fresh in their minds and whose ordeals, from the day she entered the city were vividly remembered by them.

Bibi Zainab, on behalf of all the ladies, recounted to them all the events, from the day they left Madina to the fateful day of Ashoor. She narrated each incident with tears flowing from her eyes. All the other ladies of the family and the ladies of Damascus were shedding tears with her. She even recalled in detail the period passed in Damascus, from the time of their entering the city to the day when Sakina, unable to bear the miseries and torments inflicted on her, had surrendered her young and innocent life to her Maker. She also described the events leading up to their release and mentioned her desire to go back to Karbala to bid a final farewell to all the dear departed ones, whose bodies they had left on the burning sands without even shrouds.

This was the first majlis, the gathering where the events of Karbala were recalled. Women, who came to attend it, went home and told their menfolk all they had heard. The message of Imam Hussain spread. The majlis created a stir in the city and the sound of crying and wailing made Yazid fear the turn of events. He wanted the Ahlebaith to leave for Madina as soon as possible.

Orders were given for the preparation of the homeward journey. Camels with litters were brought to the door. These were richly decorated with silk brocade. Bibi Zainab said, "We are in mourning. Change it to black." As the ladies and the fourth Imam were ready to leave, Noman bin Bashir was deputed to accompany them. Many people came to bid farewell. Bibi Zainab asked the ladies not to forget visiting the grave of her niece Sakina, who had died in the prison. "Qudahafiz Sakina," the Bibis cried, as they proceeded to Karbala.

In the name of Allah, the all-Beneficient, the all-Merciful.

So when ye enter houses,

greet yourselves

with a salutation from Allah, blessed and good

thus, does Allah clarify His signs for you that you may apply reason.

(Sura Nur 24:61).

This Quranic verse enjoins the believers to live in peace and harmony, living gracefully and showing regard to each other. It recommends that we greet each other cordially and the best greeting is praying to Allah to bestow His blessings and grace through saying ‘Salam’ (peace).

Greeting each other with ‘Salam’ is the way of the ahle bahisht (heavenly ones) who will greet each other with honour and peace “tahhiyyatan wa salama” (25:75). Other Quranic verses also speak of this, when describing people in paradise as those who greet each other with salam: tahiyyatuhum fiiha salaam (Ibrahim 14:23) and (Younus 10:10).

The Holy Prophet SAW said; ‘When you meet each other, then initiate greeting and embrace; and when you separate from each other, then depart with seeking forgiveness. Our third holy Imam Hussain AS reminded us that the initiator of the exchange of greetings receives a greater reward and said; “Seventy rewards is the share of the one who initiates a greeting and only one belongs to the one who returns the greeting”. The sixth holy Imam Jafar Sadiq (A.S.) said that the most miserly person is one who is hesitant to greet others.

The Quran also tells us; “When you are greeted with a salute then you greet with a better one than it or return it indeed Allah takes account of all things. (Nisa 4:86) This was shown by example, when the Holy Prophet was seen returning the greetings of his followers. A man approached him and said Assalamo alaika.

The Prophet replied Walaikas salam wa rahmatullah.

Another came and said Assalamo alaika wa rahmatullah.

The Holy Prophet replied Alaikas salam wa rahmatullahi wa barakatoh.

A third came and said; Assalamo alika wa rahmatullahe wa barakatoh.

The Holy Prophet said ‘wa alaika’, which meant I return you the same, as the third one had already addressed him fully.

The Hadeese Kisa, narrated from Bibi Fatima through Jabir ibn Abdullah Ansari, a renowned companion of the Holy Prophet, shows how the holy family greeted each other when they met. It begins with the Holy Prophet entering the house of Bibi Fatima and saying Salam to her. Bibi Fatima returned the greeting cordially. When Imam Hasan and Imam Hussain came one after another they both said ‘salam’ to their mother and she returned their greeting, addressing them using similar terms for both sons. Imam Ali then arrived and greeted Bibi Fatima saying ‘Salam alaiki Ya Binta Rasoolallah’ She returned the greeting, addressing him as Ameerulmomineen. Each of the Panjatan, when approaching the Kisa, said salam to the Holy Prophet, before seeking permission to enter. The Hadees e Kisa is a lesson, also, in social etiquette showing us ‘Quranic’ ayats in action. Surely these were such examples, purified by Allah, vouchsafed by the ‘Ayate Tatheer’ ‘Innama Yureedullahi liyuzbiha ankum riysa Ahlebaith wa yutahurakim Tatheera’.

Salawat

Jabir ibn Abdullah, the narrator of the Hadees e Kisa also had the honour of conveying salams from the Holy Prophet to the fifth Imam Mohamad Baqar (A.S.). Prophet Mohamad had said; “O Jabir you will live and meet one of my children descended from al-Hussain, called Mohamad, who will split wide open the knowledge of religion. When you meet him convey my salam to him.”

Making a pilgrimage to the mazaar of the Holy Prophet and the Imams, to convey salam in person, is recommended in many traditions. When the pilgrim visits Karbala, he begins with thanking God for the honour and then calls for peace to be with Imam Hussain. He declares his close bond with Imam Hussain in faith and principles and testifies to the truth of what Imam Hussain stood for.

The battle of Karbala was a battle for the upholding of Truth against falsehood, a fight between Light and Darkness. Imam Hussain on the day of Ashoor repeatedly identified himself: “If any of you do not know me, I make it clear that I am the grandson of Prophet Mohamad, whom you acknowledge as the Prophet of Islam. I am the son of the Prophet’s daughter, Fatima and the Prophet’s cousin, Ali. I am the last of the five persons about whom the Prophet of Islam spoke, time and again to his people.” The Yezidi army fought Hussain knowing who he was. They denied him water in the knowledge of his extreme thirst. They killed him and beheaded him, while he was praying Asr. Imam Hussain's family was looted and his tents plundered. The ladies and his ailing son Imam Zainulabideen were taken prisoner and paraded through the streets of Kufa.

The journey from Kufa to Shaam was long and arduous taking over twenty days. The ladies and children were exhausted as they suffered the scorching sun and cold nights. Many children fell off the camels and died. The mothers would scream in anguish but no one cared. Some mothers lost the babies they were carrying. Bibi Zainab dug a grave for each of the babies with her hands, clawing at the hot sand. When she had buried each child she would write on the sand 'Haaza Mohsin e Karbala': This is a Mohsin of Karbala. She was recalling her own stillborn baby brother Mohsin, who had been killed when Bibi Fatima was crushed behind the door of her house, by the enemies of Islam and the Ahlebaith.

They were then taken to Shaam and had to endure the tribulations of going through crowded streets. They were brought before Yazid in the darbar and after suffering indignities they were sent to the zindaan, where Bibi Sakina died. When they were finally released after a year the fourth Imam and the ladies were allowed to return to Madina via Karbala,

The Ahlebaith reached Karbala and were met there, according to tradition, by Jabir ibne Abdullah Ansari, one of the renowned companions of the Holy Prophet. Jabir had been living in Madina and learnt of the shahadat of Imam Hussain when Ibn Ziyad's emissary, Abdul Malik ibn Abil Hasi Salim had arrived to inform the governor of Madina about the events in Karbala. On hearing of the martyrdom, Jabir and Attiya bin Jumada, a learned scholar, belonging to the tribe of Qays, had left Madina and proceeded to Karbala for ziarat of the holy graves.

Attiya narrates that when they arrived in Karbala, Jabir did ghusl from the waters of Furaat, wore clean clean clothes, put perfume and approaching the mazaar of Imam Hussain (A.S.) read Allaho Akbar three times. He was then so overcome by grief that he fainted. When he recovered consciousness, he read the ziarat;

Asslamo alaikum ya Aalillah
Asslamo alaika ya Aba Abdillahil Hussain
Asslamo alaika ya Shaheed ibne Shaheed

The Holy Quran says:

Bismillahir Rahmanir Rahiim.

Ya ayyuhal lazeena amanu

Taqullaha

wabtaghu ilaihul waseelata

wa jaahidu fi sabeelihi

laalakum tuflihoon.

In the name of Allah, the all-Beneficient, the all-Merciful.

O you who have faith

Be wary of Allah

and seek the means of recourse to Him and wage jihad in His way

So that you may be felicitous.

(Sura Maidah 5:35).

Allah is addressing those with eemaan firm belief, asking them to fear Allah and seek a ‘Waseela’ means of approach, striving hard in His way to achieve success. Those who have firm faith are asked to adopt piety, taqwa, and seek Allah’s pleasure by obeying His commands and abstaining from everything forbidden. They are asked to seek the mediation ‘waseela’ of the holy Prophet and the Ahlebaith, who have been given permission by the Almighty to intercede for their followers on the day of Judgement. The mediation and the station of the Prophet and the folk of his House will become manifest at the Resurrection. (Majlisi VII 326–40).

If Allah had willed He could have guided mankind by inspiring each one individually. But in His infinite wisdom, He had not deemed it desirable. He deputed His emissaries to express His will to His creation through angels as intermediaries and sometimes directly addressing those chosen by Him. His will was revealed to His apostles and the chief of the apostles, the Holy Prophet Mohamad, is the chief waseela or means of approach to Him.

Waseela or means of approach to the Almighty is to follow Mohamad and aale Mohamad, who were divinely guided and inspired by divine knowledge and made free from all defects by Allah himself. They can do our shifaath with Allah's permission. Emulating their actions will make us better and raise us to be deserving of the rewards promised in the Hereafter.

The eighty-sixth verse of Sura Zukhruf tells us that those who can do shifaath are none other than the ones who bear witness to the Truth, Shahida bil Haq. This is achieved through surrendering the soul to the Lord. Who can be more worthy of this honour of shahadat, being a witness, than Imam Hussain, Sayyedus Shohada, the King of the Martyrs. He was the greatest bearer of witness to the Truth, one whose severed head glorified Allah even from the point of the lance. His example showed us how to do jihad – ‘jahidu fi sabeelihi’ to the utmost extent that Jihad can be done.

We bear witness to his striving in the way of the Lord Almighty, when we read his ziarat. Wa ashhado annaka wafaita bi ahdillah wa jahadtufi sabeelillah. Hatta aatakal yaqeen. I bear witness that you kept your promise made with Allah and strived in His way till what was certain came upon you.

Today is the day of Arbayeen, the twentieth of Safar, forty days after the martyrdom of Imam Husaain on Ashoor, the tenth day of Moharram. It is the day when our grief for Imam Hussain and the martyrs of Karbala is renewed. Our eleventh holy Imam Hasan al Askari A.S. recommends that the ziarat of Arbayeen be recited today. Indeed speaking to his followers the eleventh Imam described the traits of Shias thus:

- Praying 51 Rakat namaz daily including 17 compulsory (wajib), 11 (Namaze Shab) and 23 nawafil rakats (units of prayer).
- Visiting Karbala on the day of Arbayeen reciting the ziarat for Imam Hussain and the Shohada.
- Wearing a ring in his right hand.
- Using Sajdagah (qaak e Karbala) in sajda.

- Reciting Bismillahir Rahmanir Rahiim loudly in salat.

It is narrated that this was the day when the Ahlebaith arrived in Karbala and Imam Zainulabideen and the ladies mourned for their loved ones. They were met, according to some traditions; by Jabir ibne Abdullah Ansari, who was a famous companion of the Holy Prophet.

On the day of Arbayeen we remember each of the shohada who were killed with Imam Hussain:

Hazrat Abbas, the thirty-four year old brother of the Imam, the brave son of the valiant Ali.

Hazrat Ali Akbar, eighteen years old, the image of the Holy Prophet, renowned as the shabeehay Payamabar.

Hazrat Qasim, barely thirteen years old, the gem of Imam Hasan's household.

Hazrat Aun and Mohamad, the lion hearted sons of Zainab binte Ali

Hazrat Ali Asghar, the six-month-old infant who was pierced with an arrow as his father asked for water to quench the baby's thirst.

Imam Hussain, who was killed hungry and thirsty on the burning sands of Karbala.

It is difficult to imagine the grief that overwhelmed the hearts of the mothers and sisters and our mazloom fourth Imam Ali ibnal Hussain. How all the martyrs of Karbala were re-buried by the Imam and how after mourning for their loved ones the Bibis were persuaded to leave for Medina is beyond our imagination. It must have been heartrending.

The day of Arbayeen is one of the most crowded days in the sacred city of Karbala. Thousands of zaers gather to pay homage to the martyrs. It is narrated by Safwan that the sixth holy Imam Jafar Sadiq read the ziarat of Imam Hussain (A.S.) on the day of Arbayeen thus:

I testify that you are a pillar of the faith, a support for the Muslims and a refuge for the believer.

Wa ash hadu annaka min daamideen wa arkaamil musleemina wa maqailil momineem.

Ala laantullahil qaumiz zalimeen.

Wa saya limullaziina zalamuuu ayya munqalibiny yanqalibuun. (26-227)

Those who do wrong will come to know by what a great reverse he will be overturned.

Peace be on the favourite of Allah, His dearest darling! Peace be on the beloved friend of Allah, His distinguished hero! Peace be on the choicest confidant of Allah, sincerely attached precisely like his father! Peace be on Hussain, who established the true faith by giving his life in the way of Allah, a martyr, underwent untold hardships at the hand of rogues and lawbreakers!
Peace be on the hostages surrounded by the tightening circle of sorrow and grief, killed by a horde of savages.

O my Allah I give witness that beyond a shadow of doubt he is Thy favourite and choicest confidant, who enjoys Thy confidence and favour, precisely like his father!

Thou looked upto him and elected him in Thy cause, picked and chose him for the good fortune, selected for him the best purified parents, appointed him guardian, leader, and defender of rights, a true representative (inheritor and progenitor) of guardians, leaders and defenders of rights, gave him much and more from the inheritance of the Prophets, put him forward as a decisive argument, along with the other successors (of the Holy Prophet – the twelve Imams) of the mankind.

He met with deadly dangers, acted justly and fairly, made use of everything belonging to him to pay full attention to give sincere advice; took pains, made every effort, and put his heart, mind, soul and life at the disposal of Thy mission to liberate the people from the yoke of ignorance and evil of bewilderment but an evildoer, deceived with empty hopes of mean and worthless worldly gains, had pressed heavily on him, and sold out his share (eternal bliss) for the meanest and lowest bargain, betrayed his ‘day of judgement’ for a vulgar return, took pride in insolence, fell into the fathomwell of silly stupid follies, provoked Thee and Thy harsh discordant, the hypocrite, the heavily burdened bearers of sin, condemned to Hellfire, advised to him, however he (the Holy Imam) steadily, rightly and justly coped with them, till, in Thy obedience, gave his life after which his family was set adrift.

O my Allah, therefore, condemn them to hell as a denunciation and conviction; and crack down on them with a painful punishment.

Peace be on you O the son of the Messenger of Allah! Peace be on you O the son of the first of the successors (of the Holy Prophet)!

I bear witness that Allah put faith in you like He had full confidence in your father, and that you always looked for and collected good and virtue, lived a highly praiseworthy life, and departed from this world a martyr, forsaken and abused;

I bear witness that Allah will promptly fulfil the promise He made to you, and destroy those who left you helpless and punish those who killed you;

I bear witness that you kept your promise made with Allah, and strove in His way till what was certain came upon you, so curse of Allah be on those who killed you, curse of Allah be on those who oppressed you, curse of Allah be on the people who came to know and approved (of it all).

O my Allah be my witness that I make friends with those who love him and oppose those who deny him.

I, my father and mother, are at your disposal, O the son of the Messenger of Allah.

I know and bear witness that you were 'light' in the sublime loins and in the pure wombs, never touched you the dirt of ignorance, nor ever obscurity concealed you in its folds;

I bear witness that you are the pillar of 'Deen', support of the Muslims, refuge of the faithfuls;

I bear witness that you are a truthful, well aware, content, intelligent, rightly guided guide (Imam);

I bear witness that the Imams among your descendants are the symbols of 'conscious piety' and the signs of 'true guidance' the 'safe handle'

Islam, and the decisive arguments over mankind;

I declare positively that I have full faith in you, and I know for certain that you shall return.

I am, fully committed to the laws of my religion, certain of my deeds, my mind and heart ready for your return, and my affairs carried out in the light of your instructions, till Allah gives you permission, together with you, alongwith you, not at the same time with your enemies.

Blessings of Allah be on you, on your souls, on your bodies, when you are visible, when you are invisible, ob your perceiveable aspects, on your innermost genius, be it so, O Lord of the Worlds!

The Holy Quran says:

Bismillahir Rahmanir Rahiim.

Inna nahno nuhyil mauta

wa naktubu ma qaddamu

wa aasaarahum wa kulla shaiyin

ahsain aahu fi Imamum Mubeen.

In the name of Allah the all-Beneficent the all-Merciful

Indeed it is We who revive the dead and write down what they have sent ahead and their effects (which they left behind). And and we have figured everything in a manifest Imam.
(Sura Yasin 36:12).

This verse is taken from the sura Yaseen, one of the most important chapters of the Holy Quran. It is, sometimes, referred to as the heart of the Quran and daily recital of its verses is highly recommended to invoke the Mercy of the Lord. The verse quoted above reminds us that every individual man and woman will be brought to account for their deeds on the day of Judgement and the effects of their deeds left behind are also accountable. They are in a secured record of documentary evidence.

The second half of the verse mentions the Imam e Mubeen. Imam Mohamad Baqir AS said that when this verse was revealed the Holy Prophet was asked what is meant by Imam ul Mubeen.

“Is it the Torah?”

“No” was the answer.

“Is it the Evangel?”

“No” came the answer again.

“Is it the Quran?”

“No” repeated the Prophet.

The Holy Prophet then turning towards Ali ibne Abi Talib said,

“Verily, this is the Imam in whom Allah has contained the knowledge of everything.”

Salawat.

Addressing the people present there, the Holy Prophet said, “O group of men. There is no branch of knowledge which God did not bestow on me and I have conveyed the knowledge to Ali.” This corroborates another Hadees from the Prophet,

Ana Madinatul ilm wa Aliyun Babuha,
I am the city of knowledge and Ali is its gate.

Imamat is not a manmade institution. It is divinely ordained, “I will make thee an Imam for mankind.” Qala inni jailuka linnaasi Imama, (2:124), a covenant between Allah and the tested one of His own chosen ones. Imamat is an office conferred only upon the Just ones. The Holy Ahlebaith, purified by the Lord himself were vested with the authority and given the divinely commissioned Guidance. The Imamul Mubeen has the knowledge of the Kitabul mubeen, the clear, open manifesting Book. He who possesses the keys of the unseen (mafateehuk ghaib) has endowed His knowledge to the Holy Prophet and the Imams.

The essential qualities for Imamate are as follows:

- He must be of the same purity, physical and spiritual as possessed the Holy Prophet.
- He must possess the same store of knowledge, as did the Holy Prophet.
- He must be as truthful as was the Holy Prophet.
- He must be brave and courageous to face any situation.
- He must be as just and impartial as was the Holy Prophet.

The Prophet indicated many a time through his life that Maula Ali possessed all these qualities.
Ana awa Ali an min noorin wahid.

I and Ali are from the same divine light.

Ana Madinatul ilm waa Ali un Babuha. I am the city of knowledge and Ali is its gate.

Ali ma al Haq wal Haq ma al Ali,
Ali is with the Truth and Truth with Ali.

La fata illa Ali La saif illa Zulfiqar.

There is no youth successful but Ali, nor sword but his sword of Zulfiqar.

Aqza kum Ali ibne Abi Talib

The most just among you is Ali.

Imamat continued in the family of the Ameerulmomineen Ali through Imam Hasan, Imam Hussain, Ali ibnal Hussain, Zainulabideen and the Imams till the Mehdi, our twelfth Imam.

Today we have gathered together to recall the return of our fourth Imam Zainulabideen and the Ahlebaith to Madina. As they arrived on the outskirts of the city of the Prophet, the fourth Imam asked that their tents be pitched at a suitable place outside the city. Bashir ibne Jazaham was asked to go and announce the arrival of the Ahlebaith.

Bashir entered Madina wearing a black shawl and reciting an elegy, breaking the news of the martyrdom of Imam Hussain.

“O ye the people of Madina, you have no replacement there now that Al Hussain has been killed. So weep profusely. His body was dyed red with blood at Karbala and his head was swung around on the shaft of a spear. Ali ibnal Hussain has returned with his aunts and sisters. They have reached your suburbs and have stopped there. I am his messenger to you to tell where he is.” The people of Madina rushed out to meet Imam Zainulabideen.

Bashir describes the scene thus: “I whipped my horses and began to return. I found that the people were already taking to the roads and streets.... Ali ibnal Hussain was entering....He had come holding a cloth with which he wiped away his tears. Behind him, his servant had a chair, which he put down for him. He sat down upon it, while still not being able to control his tears. On all sides, the voices of the people were raised in weeping as they tried to console him. The place was in a great turmoil. He made a sign with his hand for them to be quiet and their uproar subsided.”

Surrounded by his friends and relatives, with tears rolling down his cheeks, our fourth Imam addressed them saying:

“Praise be to the Merciful Lord, who is beyond comprehension of human reason and knows all the hidden secrets. I express my gratitude to Him for undergoing with forbearance, unsurpassed cruelty at the hands of tyrants. Abu Abdullah Hussain has been killed; his family was made prisoner and his head and those of his companions have been carried on spears from town to town. Who among you shall be happy after this tragedy? What ear can listen to the ghastly details of it? Our trial has been unparalleled, bitter and painful. I pray to the Almighty that He may shower His grace upon us and wreak vengeance on our enemies.”

The battered caravan bereft of all the youths of Bani Hashim approached the city. The granddaughter of the Holy Prophet, Umme

Kulsoom cried out; “Oh the city of my grandfather. Do not accept this homecoming. When we had left you our arms were full. We had our children with us, but when we are returning, we have nothing.”

Bibi Zainab wondered how she could face Sugra, the ailing daughter of Imam Hussain, who had been left behind. How could she tell Sugra that the house would always remain empty, as each member of the family had been killed? How would she answer Sugra’s questions?

Imam Zainulabideen AS looked at his aunts. “May Allah grant you the patience of Fatima Zehra and the courage of Ali,” he prayed.

The Holy Quran says:

Bismillahir Rahmanir Rahiim.

Yaa ayyuhallaziina aamanu

faqaddimuu bayna yaday najwaakum

sadaqah Zaalika Khayrul lakum

wa athar Fa illam tajidu

fa innallaaha Ghafoorur Raheem.

In the name of Allah the all-Beneficent, the all-Merciful

O you who have faith

,When you talk secretly with the Apostle, offer a charity before your secret talk that is better for you and purer;

but if you cannot afford ( to make the offering)

then Allah is indeed all-forgiving all- Merciful.

(Sura Mujadilah 58:12).

This Quranic ayat is also known as aayae Najwa.

It speaks of the order from Allah to give alms ‘sadqa’ before secret consultation with the holy Prophet. Imam Ali A.S. has the unique distinction of acting on this verse. The verse gives a clear order that whoever wanted a private consultation with the holy Prophet should offer something in charity as ‘sadqa’. A check was imposed by this verse on the tendency of those who were trying to demand a private talk even for ordinary matters and proudly monopolising the time of the Apostle. When asked to give alms in order to avail the attention of the Prophet, the rush for vain consultations subsided. Only Imam Ali came forward and paid alms to consult the Prophet.

Thereafter, the order was withdrawn, as the people refrained from carrying it out. The first order was to test the sincerity of the people but was abrogated, leaving Maula Ali the unique distruction of having acted on it, always ready, as he was to comply with Allah's commands.

Allah reproaches and condemns the people for their attitude. 'What? Restrained ye that ye give alms before your consultation.' 'a ashfaqtum an tuqaddimu baina yaday najwakum sadaqaat.' Since they did not comply, the order was withdrawn. It was evidently a providential plan to issue the ordinance controlling vain private counselling and to prove to the companions the merit of Imam Ali.

Salawat.

Imam Ali A.S. possessed such unique virtues and attributes that we cannot find any parallel to them. He was the only person to be born in the Kaaba. He was the first to offer prayers after the Holy Prophet. He was the foremost in offering help at the Dawat Zal asheera. He was designated as the Yadullah Ainullah, Lisaullah and Wajhullah. His bravery and valour saved Islam and he knew not what fear was, except the fear of God. In the Battle of Qandaq, one simple stroke of Imam Ali, inflicted on the enemy, was greater in value than the entire ibadat of all the people.

It is difficult to enumerate the qualities and distinctions of Imam Ali A.S. In every sphere of life, whether in the battlefield or the mosque, whether as the head of state or as a private individual, his actions were impeccable. He was the perfect man in every way:

The heroic defender of Islam,
The brother of the holy Prophet,
The husband of Fatima Zehra,
The father of Hasan and Hussain,
The master of the believers
And the leader of the pious.

The Holy Prophet said ‘Allah has so much exalted my brother Ali that his numerous virtues cannot be counted easily. Whosoever among you narrates one of his excellences, God will forgive his past and future sins’ and then warned ‘Beware! That man is not steadfast in faith who loves not Ali and shun his enemies.’

The enmity of Ali, a sign of Munafiqeen was seen in Karbala. When Imam Hussain asked why the Yazidi army was against him they said ‘Bughze Abeek’: ‘Due to our enmity of your father.’ This hatred of Ali did not stop at the shahadat of Imam Hussain. His body was trampled on, his tents were looted and set fire to, his family taken prisoner and paraded through Kufa and Shaam. When the family of Imam Hussain was finally released, they returned to Madina. Bashir ibne Jazlam announced to the inhabitants that the caravan, who had just arrived at the outskirts of the city, was from Karbala. The grandson of the Holy Prophet had been killed.

Umme Kulsoom the daughter of Imam Ali and Bibi Fatima cried ‘Oh the city of our grandfather can you accept us? We had gone with our arms full of children but have come back empty handed.’ Bibi Zainab could hardly be recognised, such was the toll of grief she had suffered in Karbala, Kufa and Shaam. Imam Zainulabideen’s agony could not be described.

As the Ahlebaith approached the mazaar of the Holy Prophet, Bibi Zainab took the blood-stained shirt of her brother Hussain and falling on the grave said ‘Oh Nana, how can I tell you the tidings of Hussain’s martyrdom?’

Bibi Zainab’s father Ameerulmomineen had given sadqa to have private consultations with the Holy Prophet. Now it was the turn of his daughter Zainab who had sacrificed everything she had in Karbala. Who better than her, deserved to speak in private to the Holy Prophet? Should Zainab tell her grandfather of all the grief of Ashoor? Should she narrate what happened in Kufa and Shaam? Should she show the marks of the ropes on her arms? The mosque of the Prophet was so crowded and there was such a tumultuous wailing that the sound seemed to reach the sky.

Bibi Zainab then approached the mazaar of her mother Fatima Zehra ‘O mother how can I convey to you what indignities we suffered, what insults we endured, what brutalities we were subjected to. How can I tell you how your beloved Hussian was butchered, hungry and thirsty in Karbala, how each youth in our family was killed? How Akbar, Qasim, Abbas and Jafar, Aun and Mohamad all gave their lives?’

Imam Hussain’s ailing daughter Fatima Sugra was seen approaching. She wept as she heard about the day of Ashoor. She saw that none of the male members of the Bani Hashim, except her brother Sajjad, had returned. But her eyes still searched for Sakina and Asghar. ‘Sakina died in Zindaan e Shaam’ Sugra was told. No one had the courage to answer Sugra’s query about her baby brother. Imam Zainulabideen stepped forward. ‘Sugra, Asghar too was killed. The arrow that had pierced his neck has lodged in the hearts of the Ahlebaith.” There was renewed weeping.

Inna lillahi wa inna ilahi rajaoon.

The Holy Quran says:

Bismillahir Rahmanir Rahiim.

Ya ayyuhal lazeena aamanu

astaeenu bis sabr was salaati

innallaha ma as saabireen.

In the name of Allah, the all-Beneficient, the all-Merciful.

O you who have faith

Take recourse in patience and prayer

Indeed Allah is with the patient.

(Sura Baqrah 2:153).

The Holy Quran teaches us to seek help through patience and prayer during trials and reminds us that Allah is with the patient. Patience will protect them from fear and anguish, while prayer will turn their attention to their Lord and help them to put all their affairs in the hands of the Almighty Allah, the most powerful One.

The verse prepares the believers for some trials, which they would have to undergo in this world of struggle and competition. Death, sickness, fear, hunger, grief, poverty and deprivation are a few examples of such personal misfortunes. At a time when the great trial is near at hand and Islam itself is under attack, then martyrdom is the way of Allah is required. In achieving martyrdom, the believers reach the high ranks of spiritual perfection, receiving the blessings and mercy of Allah.

Prayer is one of the greatest acts of worship and there are several ayats in the Quran recommending salat. There are also many ahadees and sayings from our holy Imams reminding us of the benefits of prayer. Indeed, whenever Allah exhorts the people to do good deeds, prayer is always placed at the head of the list. Patience, Sabr, is one of the most important characteristics of the believer and is praised very highly. Patience and fortitude are such virtues that those who possess them are guaranteed Allah's proximity and help. Innallaha ma a sabireen: this is a special proximity, where Allah has promised to help and aid the patient ones.

All the trials mentioned in the verse, fear, hunger, loss of property and lives and fruit (children) were present in Karbala. The sufferings of Imam Hussain and his family on the day of Ashoor were such that the combination of the hardships was never seen in such intensity before or after.

Imam Ali, during his life, the Prophet Mohamad frequently spoke of the martyrdom of Imam Hussain. It is reported that when he passed through Nainawa (Karbala) on his way to Siffeen he exclaimed: ‘Hussain, be patient! Hussain be patient on the bank of Euphrates!’ When one of his companions Naja asked him what he meant by the words; the Imam said he had once seen the holy Prophet with tears flowing from his eyes. When he was asked the reason for his sadness, the Holy Prophet had said; ‘Gabriel has just left me. He informed me that Hussain will be killed at the bank of the Euphrates River.’

Imam Hussain arrived in Karbala on the second of Moharram 61 A.H. with his family and companions. From the seventh day, the water of the river Euphrates was denied to the Imam’s camp and every one, including the six-month-old baby Ali Asghar suffered thirst in the hot desert. It was indeed a difficult time for all the ladies and children especially Umme Rabaab, the mother of Ali Asghar A.S and Bibi Sakina, only four years of age.

Umme Rabaab the daughter of Imrao al Qais, chief of Al Kinda tribe, looked at her infant’s parched lips and watched helplessly as she could do nothing to quench her baby’s growing thirst.

She paced up and down in the tent, trying her best to comfort the infant, clasping him close. When Imam Hussain entered the tent, she asked him to help. The Imam took the child from her and said he would attempt to get water for him.

When Imam Hussain returned later to the camp, he had found it hard and hesitated seven times saying Innalillahi wa inna ilahi rajaoon’ as Ali Asghar’s neck had been pierced with an arrow shot by the accursed Hurmula. The Imam came to the door, called Umme Rabaab and asked ‘Who am I?

She replied ‘You are my Lord’

Promise me you will be patient’ he said

‘I promise’ she said.

The Imam then removed his cloak from the blood-drenched body of the infant..

‘Are infants of even this age killed?’ she asked. Umme Rabaab, showing sabr, looked on, as the Imam buried the infant behind the Qaimagaah.

Her patience, sabr, in the face of extreme calamity, continued as she heard her own name mentioned when Imam Hussain said his last farewell to the ladies of the Ahlebaith. The Shaame Gharibaan was a great test of patience and fortitude. The next morning, Umme Rabaab saw that her baby, whom the Imam had buried, was not left in peace and his severed head was placed on a lance to be taken with the rest to Kufa and Shaam.

In the zindaane Shaam, Umme Rabaab's four-year-old daughter Sakina, after suffering many hardships, could bear no more. She died in captivity and Umme Rabaab witnessed another grave. 'Won't you wake up for namaz, my Sakina?' she cried.

When the orders came for the Ahlebaith's release, Umme Rabaab wailed, 'O Sakina you always used to ask when are we going back to Madina, Won't you come home with us now?'

It was particularly hard for her to leave the grave of her daughter in a strange country. As they left Damascus, she told the ladies who had come to bid farewell,

'I am leaving my dearest daughter in your midst. There is none from our family in this city to visit her grave and offer fateha and flowers. I beseech you not to forget to visit my child.'

It is narrated that the Ahlebaith arrived in Karbala after the fourth Imam made arrangements for the burial of the martyrs; it was decided to return to Madina. Umme Rabaab was the last to leave.

'Leave me in Karbala. My waali and Maula Hussain is here, so is my baby Asghar. I have left my Sakina in Damascus. What do I have in Madina to go back to?'

Bibi Zainab helped Umme Rabaab in this hour of tribulation and they returned to Madina.

How she faced Sugra's searching looks and questions about the baby brother is hard to imagine. She never rested and always recalled the scorching heat of Karbal as she sat under the blazing sun. Even when it poured with rain, the ladies could not persuade her to come inside the house.

"This is rainwater; my Asghar was in a rain of arrows" she cried. She died in grief within two years of arriving in Madina. Our salaams to Bibi Rabaab, the wife of Imam Hussain, the mother of Sakina and Ali asghar, the youngest martyr of Karbala.

The Holy Quran says:

Bismillahir Rahmanir Rahiim.

Wa qalatim raatu Firauna

qurrato ainanin li

wa laka

la taqtuluhu

asa anyan faana

au nattaqizahu waladan

wa hum la yashuroon.

In the name of Allah, the all-Beneficent, the all-Merciful.

And Pharaoh's wife said (to Pharaoh)

(This infant will be ) a { source of } comfort to me and to you

Do not kill him

maybe he will benefit us

or we will adopt him as a son.

And they were not aware.

(Sura Qasas 28:9).

This Quranic ayat mentions the wife of Firaun, who was Bibi Asiya, daughter of Mazahim. She is considered as one of the four godly women, the other three being

- Maryam, the mother of Jesus,
- Khadija, the first and faithful wife of Prophet Mohamad and the mother of Bibi Fatima,

- Bibi Fatima, the daughter of Prophet Mohamad, wife of Imam Ali and mother of Imam Hasan and Hussain.

Bibi Asiya's example is of a godly soul who lived as the wife of Pharoah (a kafir), is to show us that Allah will judge us as individuals. Merely being in the company of the worst of the disbelievers and the rebellions ones would not disqualify us from receiving the grace of God. Sincerity of faith, devotion and righteousness is what each one of us will be judged by.

It was Bibi Asiya who was instrumental in saving the life of one of the greatest prophets in history, Hazrat Moosa, one of the five ulul azm prophets of Allah. The Pharoah of Egypt had ordered that all male offspring born to the Bani Israil be killed. Therefore, the birth of Moses was kept a secret. When he was born, his mother was guided by Allah to put him in a 'taboot' and floated down the river . When this box reached Pharaoh's palace, it was picked up. Bibi Asiya persuaded the Pharaoh not to kill the baby's 'la taqtulu' for they could adopt him as a son 'waladan' who could bring them benefit 'yanfa ana'.

As soon as Bibi Asiya saw Moses, the glow of 'eeman' was visible. She considered him 'qurratul aini' 'the joy of my eyes'. Moses was reunited with his own mother for he would take no other milk from anyone else. Thus the baby was restored to its restless mother by Allah. But it was Bibi Asiya who raised him up and it is she who is remembered as one of the four great women in the world.

Witnessing the miracles performed by Moses in the court of Pharaoh, Bibi Asiya embraced the faith and would not be reconverted to the way of Pharaoh. She had to endure many hardships and was forced to lie on burning sand under the scorching sun of Egypt. Yet she remained steadfast and prayed to the Almighty 'rabbib ni li indika baitan fil jannati' O my Lord build thou for me a house in Paradise' and 'najjini minal qaumiz zaalimeen' deliver me from Pharaoh and his doing and deliver me from the unjust people.' Her prayer was answered and she attained martyrdom.

Bibi Asiya is an example to show that Allah's reward is not only for those who are directly related to the holy ones, like the mother of Moses, but also those who look after the Prophets, who raise them up. Prophet Mohamad's mother Bibi Amina had died when the Prophet Mohamad was only six years old and he was left an orphan, having lost his father before birth. Hazrat Abu Talib and Bibi Fatima binte Asad, the aunt and uncle of the Holy Prophet protected him from the Kufaar of Qureish and looked after him in the early years of the spread of Islam. They, like the Prophet's father and mother and forefathers in his lineage, were all believers and monotheists.

Hazrat Abu Talib never worshipped an idol and was a believer. The Bani Ummaya circulated fabricated hadees against him in their attempts to vilify Maula Ali. The Prophet Mohamad himself (joining his two fingers) said about his uncle Abu Talib.

‘I and the supporter of the orphan are together in Paradise like these two fingers.’

Hazrat Abu Talib's couplets in praise of the Prophet indicate his eemaan.

‘I seek shelter in Allah from those who rail at us or attribute profanity to us, from the sinner who speaks ill of us, and from the person who associates things in religion which we are aloof.

I swear by the House of Allah that he lies who says that we shall leave Mohamad, though we have not yet fought against his enemy with the sword and lance.

We will indeed help him, until we have crushed his enemy.

We will offer such sacrifice that we will forget our wife and children.

His light is such that through the brightness of his face we invoke the shower of Allah's mercy.

He comes to the assistance of orphans; he is the refuge of widows.

The helpless people of the Bani Hashim go to him for help and are blessed with all kinds of favours.

I swear by my life that I have a passionate love for Ahmad. I love him like a pure friend.

I found myself fit for sacrifice to him, so I helped him, as he is an ornament for the people of the world, a curse for enemies and a grace for society.

May the Creator of the World support him with His help and reveal His religion, which is the way to Allah, and in which there is not a particle of wrong.'

These words prove that Hazrat Abu Talib believed in the Prophethood of the Holy Prophet. He was the chief of the Quraish, the head of Bani Hashim and helped the Prophet propagate Islam, supporting him against the Kufar, encouraging him in his holy mission. Hazrat Abu Talib advised his sons, Ali and Jafar, 'Never leave the company of your cousin and my nephew but help him. I swear that I will never leave the Holy Prophet.'

Indeed it was exclusively the family, the progeny of Abu Talib who were killed in Karbala. The eighteen Bani Hashim martyrs all trace their ancestry to Abu Talib and Fatima Binte Assad.

Today we have gathered to mourn the wafat of Hazrat Umme Kulsoom. She was the younger daughter of Bibi Fatima and Maula Ali and was born in Madina during the lifetime of the Holy Prophet. The Ahlebaith welcomed the second daughter and fourth child in the household with happiness and glorification. She inherited the noble traits of her mother and father and bore sorrows and oppression with patience and fortitude.

After the holy Prophet passed away, Umme Kulsoom only two years old, saw how her mother Bibi Fatima suffered. No one came to offer condolence. Instead they complained that Fatima's lamentation disturbed them. The property of Fadak was confiscated and the rights of her father Imam Ali, denied. Bibi Kulsoom lost her mother within a mere ninety days (some say seventy five) after the Prophet.

She was married to her cousin Mohamad, son of Jafar ibne Abu Talib. She lived with her brother after being widowed. She immigrated with them from Madina to Koofa when it was made the capital during the time of her father's qilafat. In 40 A.H. we learn from her account of the eighteenth day of Ramazan, how restless Maula Ali was in the night before he was attacked during fajr prayers in the mosque. It was with Bibi Kulsoom that her father had his last iftar and when she presented three items before him; he asked that one be taken away, as he never ate more than two at a time.

We hear her name mentioned in the last farewell of Imam Hussain in Karbala on the day of Ashoor. She suffered the thirst and hunger with the rest of the family. At Shabe Ashoor we learn how Hazrat Abbas A.S. her younger half brother gave her solace saying ‘I will fight for Imam Hussain on your behalf. You have raised me up from my infancy. Do not grieve, o my sister, that you have no children.’

On the night of Shaame Gharibaan, Bibi Kulssom helped her sister Bibi Zainab to collect all the children together, after the tents had been looted and set on fire. Together, these brave daughters of Ali shouldered the responsibility of looking after the orphans and widows in Karbala. They did not panic but stood firm, defending the message of Imam Hussain and upholding the banner of Truth.

From Karbala, the Ahlebaith were taken to Koofa, the city where once Bibi Zainab and Kulsoom had lived, respected and loved. Now they arrived as captives and were being taken, hands bound, through the streets. After Bibi Zainab’s qutba, it was Bibi Kulsoom who addressed them.

“O people of Kufa. Woe unto you for you killed Hussain, looted his belongings and imprisoned his family. Woe unto you May Allah’s blessings be away from you. Do you realise whom you have killed and whom you have plundered. Do you know you have engulfed yourselves in calamity? Do you realise which children you have tortured. You have killed the one who was, after the Prophet, the best in the entire world... You have earned for yourselves, the fire of Hell in which you will abide forever. I will always say that my brother (Hussain) was better than all those who were born after the Holy Prophet. My eyes will always shed tears for him and these will never dry up.” When people heard this, there was uproar of wailing and weeping and the women started to beat their faces and rend their hair in grief.

After suffering the imprisonment in Shaam, being brought before Yazid in the court, Bibi Kulsoom with the rest of the ladies and Imam Zainulabideen were sent to the Zindaan. Months passed and after the release, the Ahlebaith were finally permitted to hold a majlis to mourn their loved ones. They left Damascus and after visiting Karbala, returned to Madina. We hear of Umme Kulsoom’s outburst when the city was near.

“Oh the city of my grandfather, do not accept our return. We have come back in sorrow and grief. When we had left you, all our loved ones were with us. Now we are returning neither our men nor our children are with us. We had left with Hussain, now neither Hussain nor any of his helpers and companions has returned. We were bereft of even our veils when we had no one to help us. We were taken from city to city as captives on show.”

When people heard this, there was tumultuous weeping and the sound of wailing seemed to come from every corner of Madina. It is said that after the return to Madina the grief that Bibi Kulsoom had suffered had taken such a toll that she did not survive long and died a few months later.

The Holy Quran says:

Bismillahir Rahmanir Rahiim.

Qul inna salaati wa nuski

wa mahyaa ya wa mammati

lillahi rabbil aalameen.

La shareeka lahu

wa bizalika umirtu

wa ana avvalul Muslimeen.

In the name of Allah, the all-Beneficent, the all-Merciful.

Say indeed my prayer and my worship
my life and my death

Are for the sake of Allah the Lord of all the worlds

He has no partner

and this creed I have been commanded to follow,

I am the first of those who submit to Allah.

(Sura Al Anam 6:162, 163).

This Quranic verse points to the highest goal of human life – the law of Allah, which alone must be the mainspring of every thought and action. Complete submission to the Divine will will lead one to the position of heaven, to nearness to the Almighty, when one becomes Allah's servant and cherish nothing except His pleasure. Every action, thought and deed is for the pleasure of the Lord.

No better or greater manifestation of such a perfect submission to Allah can be found than the life of the Holy Prophet and the Holy Ahlebaith whose every word and deed was generated only from love of God. Their lives were enacted by the Divine will to serve as ideals or models for mankind.

Imam Hussain (A.S.) in Karbala proved the object in life was nothing but the love of Allah. This is the sacrifice or devotion to God unparalleled in the history of the world, making sacrifice after sacrifice to attain His pleasure. The Holy Prophet was the first example and Maula Ali was the best example of the teachings of the Messenger, one who had the full realisation of the sublime goals of the Holy Quran.

Bibi Zainab had examples like her grandfather Prophet Mohamad, her mother Fatima Zehra, Sayeda un Nisa il alimeen and father Ameerulmomineen to look up to and emulate. Indeed, the Prophet himself gave her the name 'Zainab'. Zainab is made up of two words 'Zain'

(Pride) and ‘ab’ (father). She was known as the Shareekatul Hussain (the co-partner of Imam Hussain in his mission) and aqeela e Bani Hashim (the most intelligent of the women of Bani Hashim). She was able to impart teachings of the Quran with clarity and eloquence and was considered a Fasiha and Baligha. Her devotion and abstinence earned her the appellation of Abida and Zahida and the fourth Imam Zainulabideen called her ‘Aalima ghair ul Muallima’, she who had knowledge without being taught.

Bibi Zainab was born on the first of Shaban in 5 A.H. to Fatima Zehra, the only daughter of the Holy Prophet. She had two older brothers, Imam Hasan and Imam Hussain, whom she loved very much. Her younger sister was Umme Kulsoom, who was born a year later. Bibi Zainab was married to Hazrat Abdullah ibne Jafar e Tayyar and two of her sons Aun and Mohamad were martyred in Karbala. Such was the close bond of love between Bibi Zainab and Imam Hussain that when she married Hazrat Abdullah, it was written in the terms of the nikah that she would be able to visit Imam Hussain. When Imam Hussain decided to leave Madina in Rajab 60 A.H., Bibi Zainab approached her husband and sought permission to accompany the Imam. She was a constant pillar of support for Imam Hussain and the Ahlebaith.

On the day of Ashoor, she showed immense courage, facing every hardship with forbearance and patience. Every martyr brought into the Hussaini camp was mourned by Bibi Zainab, supporting the ladies and showing by example that lives given for Islam are worthy of offering thanks to the Almighty.

When Imam Hussain bade his last farewell it was Bibi Zainab, in spite of the immense grief she was suffering, who helped him to mount his steed as he rode to the battlefield for the last time. When he was surrounded by enemies and attacked from all sides, Bibi Zainab called out to Umr Saad, “Will no one help my brother, the grandson of the Prophet?”

In Shaame Gharibaan, the night of Ashoor, Bibi Zainab and her sister Umme Kulsoom gathered all the orphaned children and ladies, giving solace. They took the responsibility that had been the duty of their younger brother Abbas.

Hands tied in ropes; Bibi Zainab and the Ahlebaith were taken to Koofa, a town where once she had resided in authority. The people of Kufa this time had come out to celebrate the killing of Imam Hussain. Bibi Zainab addressed them eloquently and boldly. ‘You should know that you have perpetuated a very morbid deed and have prepared evil provision for your next life because of which Allah’s anger is with you and His wrath will fall upon you..... By killing your Imam you have committed a singularly evil act of rebellious behaviour....’

In the darbar, she condemned Ibn Ziad warning him to beware of the day of reckoning when he would have to answer for his actions. Even though the Ummayyads thought they had made the Ahlebaith helpless and had terrorised through killing and looting, the bold address of Bibi Zainab, speaking with such courage, proved that victory was with the upholders of Truth. Several were moved to tears and some like Zaid ibn Arkam, a companion of the prophet, openly admonished Ibn Ziad.

When the captive caravan reached Damascus, they had to wait long hours and preparations in the city continued for the celebration of Yazid’s so called victory. People were not told the identity of the prisoners and were baffled to hear that this was the family of the Prophet. Bibi Zainab’s biggest hour of trial was perhaps the court of Yazid. Her beloved brother Hussain’s severed head was at Yazid’s feet in a silver salver and he was striking the Imam’s teeth with a stick. The ladies of the Ahlebaith were brought forth, their faces veiled by their hair and Bibi Zainab’s figure guarded by Fizza. Yazid demanded to know who the proud woman (mutakabira) was and was told it was Zainab binte Ali.

Bibi Zainab's qutba in the darbar is remarkable. It needs to be studied in depth as it throws light on many different aspects of Islamic history. The very introduction, 'Alhamdolillah Rabbil alimeen' and blessings on my grandfather chief of the divine Prophets" indicates her unflinching faith in the grace of the Almighty and the position of the Holy Prophet and her link to him. She condemned not only Yazid but also his forefathers, who had always worked against Islam. She quoted the verses from the Holy Quran, warning evildoers of the impending punishment from God (30:10) and (3:178). She reminded him of the time when the Prophet granted his grandfather Abu Sufyan freedom and now he had repaid this merciful act by dishonouring the family of the Ahlebaith. She made it plain to all those who heard her and to posterity, that Yazid was revolting against Allah, the Prophet and the Quran and the Sunnath. He was an unbeliever like his ancestors.

Bibi Zainab, then, reminded Yazid that the martyrs in Allah's way do not die (3:169-170) and that this 'defeat' is not an achievement, for Allah does not commit injustice and is the Ahlebaith's relief and place of Protection. The end for Allah's friend is the better one, for He has granted success in their aims, whereas Yazid and his minions will hurl themselves into evil and mischief. Such bold defiance of his authority stunned Yazid and enraged him and he would have had Bibi Zainab killed but he was shamed into silence.

After suffering imprisonment in the Zindaane Shaam, the Ahlebaith were finally released. The first and foremost thing that Bibi Zainab did on her release was to establish the rites of mourning for Imam Hussain and the martyrs of Karbala. The women of Damascus arrived, clad in black, and Imam Zainulabideen and the Bibis recounted all that had happened in Karbala. Majlises were held in Madina, too, on the return of the Ahlebaith and people learnt about the events of Karbala. Increasing numbers of people received the Imam's message and found out about the hardships of the Ahlebaith in captivity. Turmoil and unrest against the Ummayyad regime grew.

Orders were sent from Yazid to take the fourth Imam prisoner again. He was taken towards Damascus and his aunt Bibi Zainab accompanied him. As they approached the city, Bibi Zainab was very restless. Memories of the previous journey coming with the heads of the martyrs on lances flooded her thoughts. She called Fizza and said 'I hear there is a tree near here where my brother Hussain's head had been placed' Bibi Zainab burst into tears on approaching it. Hearing the intense sobbing Ibne Tameem an archenemy of Maula Ali, came near. When he realised that this was Imam Ali's daughter, he attacked Bibi Zainab with the rake he had in his hand and thrust it into her back. Bibi Zainab reeled to the ground.

Imam Zainulabideen approached his aunt and attended to her wound. But alas, she did not survive and he buried her, shedding tears for this great lady, who was like a mother to him. Bibi Zainab's grave stands just outside Damascus and is frequently visited by many zaireen. May Allah grant us the opportunity to visit it to offer our personal salutations.

Assalamo alika ya Sayyadaati Zainab binte Ali wa rahmatullahi wa barakatoh.

Hadees

The Holy Quran says,
“Bismillahir Rahmanir Raheem.
La yamlikoonash shafa ata
illa manit taqaza
indar Rahmaani ahda.”

In the name of Allah the all-Beneficent, the all-Merciful.

No one will have the power to intercede(with Allah)

Except for him who has taken a covenant with the all-Beneficent.

(Sura Maryam, 19:87)

This Quranic verse speaks of Intercession, “Shafaat”, reserved only to those who have entered the Covenant from the Lord to do it. Intercession, independent of Allah’s authority, is rejected by the Quran; but is proved for Allah and others with His permission. The word “shafaata” is derived from “as shaf” which means ‘even’ as opposed to ‘odd’. The interceder adds his own recommendation to the plea of the petitioner; in this way the number of pleaders becomes even and the weak plea of the petitioner is strengthened by the prestige of the intercessor. He puts at stake his own prestige and honour in the eyes of the Master. In other words, the intercessor is requesting the Almighty to bestow pardon and forgiveness and show divine mercy. The hope of divine mercy leads to repentance, piety and good deeds.

The Intercessors, as described in the verse above, are the ones who made a Covenant with the Beneficent God. The Covenant is that He should be worshipped (36:60) and one follows the straight path. Who else could deserve or be entitled to the covenant than those, who surrendered their selves in the way of the Lord. They are the Holy Prophet, Mohamad and his Ahlebaith.

Our fifth Imam Mohammad Baqir (A.S) pointed to the verse “And soon will your Lord give you so that you shall be well pleased” as the most hope inspiring ayat of the Quran. It points to the intercession by the Ahlebaith on the day of judgement, which will bring divine forgiveness to the believers and prevent them from entering hell, thus extending mercy, benevolence and magnanimity of the Almighty Allah.

Bibi Fatima has been given the power and authority of intercession and she will help the Shias and the azadaar of her son Imam Hussain to enter heaven. Maula Ali, our first Imam, said; “I shall be standing on the Sirath, praying and saying “My Lord save my Shias and my lovers and helpers and those who followed me in the life in this world”.

The events at Karbala revive in us our commitment and loyalty to Islam, as we learn from the example of Imam Hussain to uphold Truth and the spiritual and moral values. Participation in the observance of his sufferings and martyrdom is an aid to salvation on the Day of Judgement, as we identify ourselves with the Imam. Carrying the alam is a symbol of fighting for the uncompromising cause of justice. As we recall the thirst in Karbala, when the Ahlebaith were denied water for three days, the sabeel acquires a symbolic meaning and we remember Hazrat Abbas, who was killed while trying to get water for the thirsty children. Establishing majlis, when we mourn for the family of Imam Hussain and recounting their sufferings 'rauza qani' is a vehicle to impart learning about moral and spiritual topics and the majlis over centuries has been the lifeline of the Shia faith.

Bibi Zainab had established the rites of mourning for Imam Hussain, as a priority, immediately on release from the prison in Damascus. On returning to Madina, the majlis e aza for the martyrs of Karbala had continued

Imam Zainulabideen, our fourth Imam mourned for his father and continued to weep throughout his life. He wept when food was brought to him and wept, whenever he took water to drink. This example of the Imam was followed by the Shias everywhere as they joined hands to establish the mourning of Imam Hussain wherever possible. This created a feeling of oneness and unity among all those who attended the mourning sessions.

Yazid continued to imagine that he could crush Islam through yet another series of crime and atrocities. When the people of Madina made an uprising, he ordered a public massacre in the Prophet's city. Houses were looted and women attacked, Madina remained under siege for three days, in 63 A.H. The following year, the Kaaba was set fire to. The siege of Mecca was interrupted when news of Yazid's death reached the city on the fourteenth of Rabiulaval 64 A.H.

A year after Yazid's death, there was an uprising in Kufa, led by Sulaiman ibn Suad Khuzar. In 66 A.H. Janabe Mukhtar, assisted by Ibrahim ibn Malik Ashtar took over the control of Kufa. Mukhtar rounded up all those who had been directly involved in the massacre in Karbala. Omar ibne Saad was punished and news of his death and the death of Yazid's minions at the hands of Mukhtar reached Madina on ninth Rabiuaawal. This day was designated 'Eid Zehra' by our fourth Imam.

As we look forward to the Eid Zehra, we bid farewell to the days of mourning, which we had been participating in regularly over the first two months in the Islamic year. We have recited the poetry of lamentation for Imam Hussain and for the events of Karbala and this poetry has a religious aim and has become, therefore, an act of piety.

Poets recited nohas and marsias in the presence of Imam Jafar e Sadiq, who wept as he heard them and said: 'Who ever recites poetry about Imam Hussain and makes forty others weep will have Heaven as a reward.' Imam Raza A.S. honoured the poets who composed poems of lamentation for the shohada of Karbala.

It is recommended that we make a pilgrimage to the tombs of the Holy Prophet, the Imams of the holy family and members of the Ahlebaith. The Prophet himself used to visit Baqi and the martyrs of Ohad and said "Visit graves for they will remind you of the hereafter." Bibi Fatima used to visit the graves of the martyrs of Ohad and her uncle Hamza every week and perform salat, pray and weep.

The Imams of the Holy family directed the Shias to make ziarat because it puts us in living and direct contact with the sources of Islam in thought and ideology, as we renew our covenant with them. When we visit Karbala we recite the ziarat of Imam Hussain and pray,
"O Allah, make my life the life of Mohamad and the family of Mohamad and my death the death of Mohamad and the family of Mohamad, may the blessings of Allah be with him and his family...

I testify before you that I believe in you and will follow you in my very nature, in the legal requirements of my religion, in the impressions made by my actions and in my final destiny and resting place.”

Imam Moosa al Kazim has said ‘ The least reward for those who makes a visitation to Al Hussain on the banks of Euphates if he recognises his right, his sanctity and his authority as Imam, will be that his past and later sins will be forgiven by Allah.’

As we visit Karbala, we testify that the revolution of Imam Hussain was for the sake of justice as he sought to establish the justice of God. Thus he is the vengeance of God, ‘Sarillah’. We renounce the enemies of the Imam and bind our life with the martyrs. We make a declaration of the cosmic nature of Imam Hussain’s revolution and renew our testimony of the faithfulness of the supporters of Imam Hussain. We, then, return to praising and exalting Allah.

Thus the pilgrimage itself is a kind of remembrance of Allah, through remembering one of His righteous servants, who struggled for His sake. He was the heir of the Prophets: Adam, Noah, Abraham, Moses, Jesus and Mohamad.

After Mohamad, he was the heir of Imam Ali and Imam Hasan. Imam Hussain's life was living Islam, establishing prayer, salat (signifying relationship with God) and zakat (representing relationship with men) and rectifying society by enjoining good and forbidding evil.

Today we have gathered to bid farewell to the days of azadari. We say qudahafiz to our mazloom Imam and all the shohada of Karbala:

Assalomo alaika yabna Rasoolallah
Assalomo alaika yabna Ali yanil Murtuza
Assalomo alaika yabna Fatimatuz Zehra
Assalomo alaika yabna Qadijatul Kubra
Assalomo alaika ya Aulad il Hussain
Assalomo alaika ya Ashaab il Hussain
Assalamo alaika ya Ali ibnal Hussain
Assalamo alaika ya Abul Fazlil Abbas
Assalamo alaika ya Qasim ibnal Hasan
Assalamo alaika ya Aun o Mohamad
Assalamo alaika ya Habeeb ibne Mazahir
Assalamo alaika ya Hurre Shaheed
Assalamo alaiki ya Zainab binte Ali
Assalamo alaiki ya Umme Kulsoom binte Ali
Assalamo alaikum ya Ahle Baitin Nabuva
Assalamo alaikum ya sadaati wa mawali jamia
Wa rahmatullahi wa barakatuh

As we bid farewell to the martyrs we say in the words of the holy Imams, “O Allah do not make this my last greetings to them.

Rather make me close to them into the righteousness, which you gave to them through their support for the son of your Prophet and your proof (hujja) to your creatures and through their struggle alongside him for your sake
O Allah grant me the chance of coming to them again. Gather me with them of the last day. O most merciful of those who are merciful.”

Ala lanatullahi qaumiz zalimeen.

Wa saya limullaziina zalamuuu ayya munqalibiny yanqalibuun. (26-227)

Those who do wrong will come to know by what a great reverse he will be overturned.

Journey of Imam Hussain's family in captivity from Karbala to Damascus

After the day of Ashoor, the family of Imam Hussain AS was taken prisoner, his belongings looted, the tents burned. The heads of the martyrs were severed and carried on spears and the Fourth Imam and the ladies of the Ahlebait, bereft of their veils, were taken on the backs of unsaddled camels from Karbala to Damascus. It was a long and arduous journey. Many young lives were lost on the way and the sufferings and anguish of the Ahlebait left deep marks of sorrow. The sermons given by the fourth Imam and Bibi Zainab AS, the miracles connected with the severed head of Imam Hussain dispelled the false propaganda of the Umayyad regime and spread the true message of Islam.

Sources that relate the details of the route taken by the Yazeedi forces mention the names of places they stopped enroute.

Koofa

This city had once been the seat of government of Imam Ali AS. Our fourth Imam Zainulabideen (in chains) and the ladies of the Ahlebait were brought to Koofa before Ibn Ziyad, Yazeed's governor after being paraded in the streets of the city. The Imam and Bibi Zainab and Bibi Kulsoom and the young daughter of Imam Hussain addressed the crowds, condemning the atrocities.

Al Malhuf

They moved north from Koofa, carrying the heads revelling and drinking wine. Suddenly a hand appeared and marked in blood a verse that asked

Atarju ummatan qatalat Hussaina shafata jaddi yaumal hisab

“Does the ummat who killed Hussain hope his grandfather’s intercession on Judgement day?”

Tikrit

The governor sent people with flags. The Yazeedi forces were afraid of the populace turning against them so did not tell the people who they had killed, merely saying he was a “foreigner.” However a Christian, who heard this, said “What they say is not true. This is Hussain ibn Ali’s head, son of Fatima. When he was martyred I was in Koofa”

Mashad Al Nuqte

The holy head was placed on a stone. A drop of blood fell and from then on every year on the day of Ashoor blood appears on the stone. People mourn for Imam Hussain.

Wadi Nukhla

There is a place near Musil called Nukhla, near Khazir. Lamentations were heard from jinns weeping for the Imam and the ladies in sorrow.

Mosil

Going towards Kuhayyl and Juhayna, cities near the river Tigris though now there are no remains. Musil was an ancient city where the prophet jirjis is buried. The ruler of Musil ordered the city to be decorated. When the people realised the identity of the head they were ready to take up arms to kill the ruler. So the route was changed.

Sinjar

They moved west towards “Tal Afar” and Jabl Sinjar, located alongside a mountain.

Nasiibi

When they reached there, Mansur ibn Ilyas ordered city decoration, using mirrors for the purpose. The man who carried the head of the Imam wanted to enter but the horse disobeyed. Several horses were changed but to no avail. When they looked carefully at the head they realised who it was. The people watching took the head and killed the ruler. Bibi Zainab recited heart rending verses in sorrow.

Aynal Warda

The Imam's head was placed in the centre of the city square on a spear. Some celebrated while others cried.

Raqqa

This is by the banks of the river Euphrates near the battlefield of Siffeen. The caravan passed through Raqqa on their way to Damascus.

Halab

Now known as Aleppo, Halab is an ancient city where Prophet Zakariya is buried. The stone on which Imam Hussain's head was placed is now housed in a masjid in Halab and is a place of pilgrimage. On the west side of Halab is a mountain called Jabl Jausan where copper is extracted. It is said that the mine was damaged after the Ahlebait passed through. One of Imam's wives aborted her baby on the mountain. Some have written she asked for water but they refused and swore. She cursed them and nobody has ever benefited from the mountain since then. The aborted child is called “Mohsin e Hussain”. People visit this mountain to pay their respects.

Qinnasriin

This was a city between Halab and Hams. A monk lived here and as Ibn Ziyad’s agents approached the monastery, he saw a light emanating from Imam Hussain’s head and going towards the sky. So he paid them ten thousand drachmas to keep the holy head for the night. During the night he converted to Islam and prayed for intercession of the Imam on the day of Qiamat.

Sibur

There was a revolt here against the Yazeedi forces which forced them to alter their route. Hazrat Umme Kulsoom AS gave dua that Allah make their provisions cheap, their water fresh and make them get rid of oppressors. They left Sibur and went towards Hamat.

Hama and Hims

The gates of Hama remained closed so they could not go in. At Hims people opposed them saying “we will never allow you to bring the Imam’s holy head to this city.” Some of the Yazeedi soldiers were killed in the resistance.

Balbeik

This was an ancient city with fine buildings and palaces. The Ahlebait wept as the inhabitants rejoiced, carrying flags in a festive mood. They came out to look at the prisoners.

Damascus

Known as Sham, dominated by Bani Ummaya, was their capital city. The fourth Imam ,when asked to name the place where he had suffered the most replied “Ash Sham ! Ash Sham !Ash Sham!”

In Damascus, the Ahlebait passing through crowded lanes and bazaars, were jeered and jostled. They were made to wait for several hours at the gate of Yazeed’s palace as the decorations were completed. The heads of the martyrs were taken before the tyrant and presented as trophies in a silver salver. The Imam was brought in chains and all the ladies tied up by one rope dragged into the court. The Darbar e Sham was the worst hour of trial for the Ahlebait. The Ahlebait were then sent to the Zindan e Sham, a dark and damp dungeon where Bibi Sakina, the four year old daughter of Imam Hussain AS died.

In spite of the immense sufferings, the truth of Islam was apparent. The sermon of the Imam and the bold stance of Bibi Zainab shook the very foundations of Umayyad rule. The celebrations turned to revulsion against the tyrant.

This map has been taken from the cover page of the Jafari Observer May 1998, Volume 10, no 9.

It traces the journey of Imam Hussain AS from Medina to Mecca then to Karbala. The next journey was from Karbala to Koofa along an extended route taken by the Yazeedi forces as they took the Imam's severed head, together with the Ahlebait and Imam Zainulabideen as captives to Damascus. When they were released, they returned to Madina via Karbala.
